It has been said that the world cannot be made safe for any great period of time—that, like the recurring business cycle, which has its own periodic influence on the setup of wars, world-wide conditions are inevitable and must be accepted as an ordeal in which no one can escape. From the actions of our present-day world leaders it would appear that they are not quite so sure that their "beloved" wars will make martyrs of themselves—at least they seem to doubt that their own martial efforts this generation of which we are a part of may not feel the scorching flames of hatred and destruction. Rather, than consider the matter to war "natural causes" our humane Mussolini and Franklin Roosevelt have taken it upon themselves to see that the youth of the world is given an opportunity for murdering each other in the name of Patriotism.

Wars can't be fought without armies, and it wouldn't put all of them which is most against war, that makes up the forces of sacrificial lambs which follow the murderous dictates of the dictators. And it is not to be thought that it is the political dictators of the world alone who will gain through war.

We wonder if the above cited conditions really do not occur if the personnel of the armies, that fundamental factor of all wars, should be a force which than set up measures of height, weight, and color, should not change the army standards so that one million possible soldiers—one million of the most intelligent youths of this land, could make the powers that be sit up and take notice, the next time they begin to talk war.

... ... ... LEADERSHIP COUNTS ... ... ...

The Weekly around this time of the year carries the listings of the various and sundry campus organization elections. Notice the names of those students who have been elected to head the curricular organizations, the extra-curricular clubs, the fraternities, the sororities, and the athletic organizations.

No matter how you rate the necessary prerequisites for success, it is fairly universal to say that leadership is a very significant factor.

For Digestion's sake...smoke Camels

One of life's most enjoyable experiences is the pleasure Camels add to eating

You have surely noticed how much more you enjoy eating when your mind is free from care. No mental strain or hurry slows down the natural flow of digestive fluids.

Much of this same enjoyment is yours when you smoke Camels. Smoking Camels increases the supply of alkaline digestive fluids...so necessary for zest while you eat and for digestive well-being afterward.

In Camels, you find tobacco at once rich, mild, and perfect in taste. Camels set you right! They give you a cheery "lift." And never jangle your nerves or tire your taste.

GRIZZLY TRACKMEN WIN CLOSE MEET FROM ALBRIGHT, 67-59
Pancoast, Grimm Are High Scorers
For Ursinus Bear Squad
On Wednesday afternoon, the Bear trackmen won their first meet of the season by nipping out the Albright Lions, 67-59. The Grizzlies forced the headed in the first few events and managed to stay there, although they were pushed hard. The runners were materially aided by the addition of Pancoast and Tworty, who took the afternoon off from their baseball activities.

Pancoast was the high scorer for Ursinus, placing first in the 100 and 440, and second in the 220. Captain Johnny Grimm took first in his specialties, the high and low hurdles, and placed third in the broad jump. Wynkoop, veteran distance man, led his opponent to the tape in the 3 mile run.

In the field events, Tworty, Levin, and Knoll combined to give Ursinus a sweep in the shot. Knoll and Tworty took first and second respectively in the discus. Guanner cleared 5 feet 11 inches to pass first place in the high jump and Porombo tied for second.

Although no records were broken, the dual meet showed that the Grizzlies are capable of putting up a well-balanced outfit on the field that should give a good account of itself in the next home meet on May 30.
