Bears Decisively Beat by Villanova

As Victors Display Mid-Season Form

Bears may have been beat back their own three-yard drive by slicing fifteen yard at right tackle, as the center of the Bear line held fairly well. The Bears were slow in starting, but gained momentum in the third quarter, when they pushed through the 70 yard line and scored the first touchdown of the game. The Bears' attack, worthy work of the players throughout the end of the game, against the Wildcats' defense, was due to a change of system which Coach Hunter is employing for the first time this year.

Editorial Comment

YOURS IS THE TASK

Football once again assumes the stage at Ursinus. Forty-one years ago, in 1898, football made its bow here. Although humble, it was an actual beginning. It was in its first football game Ursinus won a 20 to 6 victory over Molloy. Since that time Ursinus has produced one fine team after another until today, her football prowess is a by-word among small colleges.

In all this the spirit and support of the student body has been paramount. Spirit has become an integral part of Ursinus tradition. The team is actually one of the most popular groups among the students. It would be unusual to find practically all of them in their rooms on football days. Special orders to go to the games are usually crowded, the last is usually a freshman meeting. Yet, when the team wins or loses there is great excitement. The final result at the end of the semester should be good grades and better citizenship.

The freshmen should use all of the hours especially reserved for study, as it is of the utmost importance that they begin their studies at once. Subject peoples would be released from tutelage. The "forgotten man" would come into his own.

But, before closing, we might mention that an upper-classman, whom no matter how far behind he is behind, finds a willing audience among the freshmen. Good praying.

For the charge was but a nickel, there's no law that prevents him from giving, and doing so he will. But he was a pickle, and we have not yet entered the 20th century, the major effort of legislative bodies, and educational societies will be to free or to make free the fabric of a dying state. Successful as was the work of the Founding Fathers, it was somewhat on the lines of a death-watch. If their versatility may be complete, the subject matter into the hands of the student body has been discovered in the present day.

The negative team is composed of Mable Funk '36 and Sally Enlow '37.

The James M. Anderson Pre-medical Society held its first meeting of the current year last Monday evening. Camille Krutz '35, president of the organization, was in charge of the meeting and was mainly for organization purposes.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Plans for Initial Meeting

The Women's Athletic Association cordially invites the freshman girls and all persons interested to attend its initial meeting of the year to be held on the evening of October 16. This meeting will be held for both business and social purposes. The constitution of the organization will be read, revised, and voted upon. An tentative rules may be seen and discussed among the freshmen, coaches. At the same time, the awards for last year's sports will be given to those girls who were supposed to receive them.

The purpose of the W. A. A. is to arouse interest in athletics among the women of Ursinus. This and this year's meetings are held annually at the opening of the school and the basketball season, and in the spring.

Since it is so easy to become interested in any of the things of the organization, all Ursinus girls who do not already belong are urged to join and to take interest in their physical development.

Dr. Brownback, president; Sarah Helen Keyser '30, vice-president; and Virginia Fenton '37, secretary-treasurer. The newly-elected class representative, Eleanor Lyle '35, Horis Roch '36, and Elvira Elder '37.

Collegiate Spotlight

A professor at Texas University gives a one-hour quiz to all students who arrive late to his classes. What happens when they cut it?

Sophia cut more chores than any other group of students, a survey made at Carnegie disclosed. That's why she's such a good student. For her light-headed action.

A Valparaiso student was accused of wearing his riding habit to bed. He explained, "It's only an act of premeditation. I'm subject to nightmares."

You can't win, Sophia! A Lehigh sophomore concluded. No one year's suspension for plagiarism in innumerable attempts at the establishment of his defense, with the statement, "I did it because I've saved a me a lot of thinking." In a history final at the University of California, the students were asked to state the Monroe Doctrine in at least a form as possible. The shortest answer received was, "Are fries, or so?"

Weather Report

Mexico- Chile today, and hot to scale.
The first pep meeting of the current football season was held on Thursday evening, September 27, in Bomberger hall. The rally was well attended and evinced a rousing interest in the game with Villanova on Saturday. Lynn Carr ’35, whose every appearance occasioned much and varied applause, presided over the meeting. After expressing his delight in the ardor enthusiasm displayed by the student body in general and the “hail long-hops” in particular, he presented “Jack” McAvoy, the Grizzly mentor. “Jack” first stressed the importance of the annual Villanova-Ursinus game, which is now recognized as the “sideline” of local football. He informed the student body that the current team is employing a new and more deceptive offense, and expressed his belief in the fact that the best Ursinus team since he is affiliated with the College is now in the making.

Sam Levin ’35, the team captain, Allen Cooper ’35, and lively music by the College band under the direction of William Leman ’37, the meeting was terminated with the singing of the Campus Song.

They are made that way—

Chesterfields are milder
Chesterfields taste better

Ripe home-grown tobaccos

We begin with the right kinds of mild ripe Domestic tobaccos. Then we age and mellow them like rare wines for flavor and taste.

Aromatic Turkish tobaccos

Next we add just the right kinds and the right amounts of Turkish tobaccos to give Chesterfield the “seasoning” that helps to make them taste better.

Blended and cross-blended

Finally we “weld” these tobaccos together the Chesterfield way—different from any other—to make Chesterfield a milder better-tasting cigarette.

The society tends an invitation to all those interested in the organization to attend the meeting. All students who are taking, or have taken, courses in chemistry are eligible for membership.

The play to be given as the Schaff play will be discussed and the date for presentation will be set. Membership cards will be given to all persons chosen as new members of the club.

Discussion Groups to Meet

Freshman discussion groups for the coming semester have been arranged by Theodore Bryner, '36, who has charge of freshmen work in the Y. M. C. A. program. These groups will be started this week, and meetings will be conducted bi-weekly on those dates selected by the members.

Professor Bose will again lead a consideration of pressing world and national problems in the light of daily developments. A second group, headed by Professor Witmer, will deal with religion as it affects the individual student. Personal adjustments that must be effected in reference to friendships, activities, fraternity, and vacations will be discussed under the guidance of Professor Shoemaker.

"Y" Organizations May Join Student Christian Movement

A joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. will be held Wednesday evening to discuss the advisability of joining the Student Christian Movement. It is expected that a representative from Philadelphia will be present to explain the proposition and lead in discussion.

This movement, known as the S. C. M., had its origin about eight years ago when a need was felt to unify all organizations on American and foreign campuses that were definitely Christian. In Indiana, more than half the United States, the S. C. M. has provided an effective channel for the expression of student opinion on matters social, economic, and religious. If adopted by the University campus, the original set-up of existing groups would be little affected, if at all. Their usefulness, however, would be increased by the greater availability of opportunities provided by the national council.
