Miss Path was in close conversation, as usual, with her client, who was at the time being entertained by the sight of a large pile of books. "Miss Path," said the client, "I want you to take these books and make a list of them."

Miss Path nodded her head, and replied, "Yes, I will do it for you."

The client then proceeded to explain his wants, and Miss Path made a note of each book that he desired. After a short time, the client said, "That is all, I will leave you now."

Miss Path thanked him, and said, "Good-bye, I will see you later."

PHILADELPHIA. April 16. Program: Backus, U.S. S. M. Anderson, chairman. Topic, "The Local Activities of the Republican League." E. A. C. McConnell, of Philadelphia, in charge of arrangements. Program to be commenced at 1 o'clock, P.M. at the Union League Club, 12th and Chestnut streets. The committee is authorized to admit non-members on payment of $1.25, which will be devoted to the liquidation of the national debt.

Pittsburgh, April 16. Program. "Politics has been the theme of the day in the various political organizations this week. The Republicans, Democrats, and Independents are all busy preparing for the summer campaign. The Independents, however, are the most active, as they are preparing for a new campaign under the name of the Independent Republican League. The Democrats are also busy, as they are preparing for a new campaign under the name of the Democratic Republican League. The Republicans are not so busy, as they are preparing for a new campaign under the name of the Republican League.

HOMC:

Last year: Mrs. James Wilde has taken the place of Mrs. James Wilde as the leader of the Democrats. Mrs. James Wilde has been the leader of the Democrats for the past two years, but she has recently retired from the position. Mrs. James Wilde has been replaced by Mrs. James Wilde, who has been a member of the Democratic party for the past ten years.

INDEPENDENT

Holds its own in the field of journalism by always looking to the convenience of its readers.

Those who have read the INDEPENDENT for twenty years will tell you that it does its level best to advocate right and oppose wrong.

It won’t always please you; no one can please you any more than you can please yourself.

If you are not a reader of the INDEPENDENT, become one, and give it a fair, intelligent trial!

Then your judgment will tell you all about it.

If you are a reader, ask your friend or neighbor to do as you are doing. You can certainly never lose anything by doing a good thing.

The INDEPENDENT believes in honest goods, honest money, honest purposes and honest action.
