FORDHAM BOWS TO THE VARSITY

Johnson Pitches a No-Hit, No-Run Game.

The college varsity added one more victory to its rapidly increasing list when it defeated the strong Fordham University team on Fordham Field on Wednesday by the decisive score of 4 to 0. Johnson was at his best and had the Fordham sluggers eating out of his hand throughout the whole game.

In the fourth inning doubles by Mitterling and Bedenk, coupled with a wild pitch, netted two runs. From that time the result of the game was never in doubt, as Johnson pitched consistently and the boys backed him up like old leaguers. Just to cinch the game one run was chased across the plate in both the seventh and eighth innings.

A fast double play by Reiff and Bedenk, and one by the Fordham boys, were the only spectacular features besides the pitching of Johnson.

The score follows:

The third annual inter-class field meet will be held on Patterson Field, Monday afternoon May 11, at 2.30 o'clock. Classes will be suspended during the afternoon. Members of the faculty will officiate. Ribbons will be awarded to the individual victors of each event. The class winning the largest number of points will have their numerals engraved on the cup in the library.

Our tennis team, composed of McClure, Yeatts, L. Yost, and Small substitute, met Lehigh at South Bethlehem on April 29th and were defeated in straight sets, 6-0. Lehigh's experience and general superiority was matched against our inexperience and lack of practice, and, of course, there could be only one result. L. Yost's playing in singles featured.

F. & M. AGAIN LOSES TO VARSITY

Time and Place Make No Difference to Varsity as Victors.

The Ursinus team won the sixth straight victory on Saturday by defeating the strong Franklin and Marshall team for the second time this year by the decisive score 8-3. Ursinus played the inside game and took advantage of our opponents' errors and easily won the game. The hits of the local boys came at opportune times while the Franklin and Marshall nine were unable to solve the delivery of Johnson except for the fourth inning when four hits were registered, giving the Lancaster team two runs.

Three runs were scored in the first inning on singles by Kennedy, Diemer and Bedenk, and Mitterling's three-bagger. Three runs were added in the second, fourth and seventh innings. In the ninth with one down Mitterling tripled and Bedenk followed with a single, a stolen base and tallied on Johnson's single.

Franklin and Marshall was never dangerous after the fourth inning. Walker and Jones played best by the blue and white, and Kennedy, Mitterling and Bedenk starred for the red, old gold and black.

VICTORIOUS TEAM GREETED

Enthusiasm at High Pitch After Fordham Victory.

The biggest demonstration that Collegeville has ever seen in the line of real college spirit was held on Wednesday night.

When the telegram came announcing that Johnson had held Fordham hitless and scoreless and that we had scored four tallies, the old bell pealed out the glad tidings.

Enthusiasm was in the air. The boys lounged on the west campus to talk it over; some one suggested a parade. No sooner said than each fellow yelled his assent. The idea of a bonfire leaped into several minds at the same time. Everybody was game. Like wildfire the yell spread; all out! all out!

In two and one-half hours a pile of barrels, boxes and timber about 12 feet in diameter and 15 feet high, was ready on the campus east of Bomberger. Never had the boys worked harder. All vied with one another in the gathering of material.

At 10.20 the boys appeared in pajamas and "nights" and fell in line. The college spring wagon was taken along. We marched to Olevian where the girls were treated to some noise. Then we marched to Shreiner where the girls were waiting for us on the front porch. Our yells were answered by a lusty "yoh" yell and with Miss Davenport as a chaperon the girls followed the parade.

Two cornets, a drum and several tin pans furnished the music. We marched down Main street to the lower switch where we waited for the car.

The arrival of the car was heralded by the explosion of about 12 signal caps placed on the rails. The boys were carried from the car and placed in the wagon which was drawn by about 15 fellows. Captain Boyer and "Jingle" Johnson were carried through the town on the shoulders of our husky students.

When the parade, augmented by many folks from town, reached the campus the bon-pile had been fired and in a few minutes it was a roaring mass.

Speeches were made by many members of the team and all sang and whooped.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THE WEEKLY?

In the April first number of the Collegian, a weekly edited by the students of Penn State, an effort was made to find out what the subscribers wanted in the paper. The entire first page was given over to the query, "What's the matter with the Collegian?"

A later number gives the results of the answers received from subscribers. Some of them are changes in editorial policy, suggestions regarding the printing of athletic news, Y. M. C. A. notes, review of events, news from other colleges and advertising.

The editor then gave a few interesting statistics. Out of a student body of 2000 there are 464 subscribers. Only 50 replies were received to the request for suggestions; 2 1/2 per cent of the student body sufficiently interested in their college to try to better the college paper!

The editor of the WEEKLY is well pleased with the idea of asking advice from the subscribers and at this time asks that you get the gray matter working and send your suggestions to him. We want to make this paper worth reading and you are the people who know what you want to read. Will you help?

Make your answers as definite as possible. If you would suggest that we introduce more athletic news tell us what to add; don't jot down "athletics."

There may be some news items which have never been used which you believe will make the paper better; send them in.

That we may know how to value these suggestions please sign all letters. The editor will consider all requests to omit names if mention is made of your contribution in the WEEKLY.

Y. W. C. A.

Miss Reifsnider conducted the meeting on Tuesday evening, speaking on the topic: "Christians, What Should They Be?" In her talk she said: "A true Christian will not forget to read her Bible and kneel in prayer in spite of the many things that crowd in. The question, 'What would Jesus do in my place?' will help us to solve our difficulties.

"Christians should prove by their actions that they are such. Here in college we may show it by doing little acts of kindness and speaking words of encouragement. It behooves everyone to help her neighbor.

"The most essential thing in the Christian life is prayer. It is the medium of our communion with God. In prayer we show our desire for help. Thereby we are strengthened day by day."

Much interest and enthusiasm was shown by the large number who spoke in the discussion which followed.

Y. M. C. A.

On Wednesday evening the subject for discussion was: "Therefore, Let Us be Noble." Yost, '15, led the meeting. He said in part: "Nobleness may be manifested in different ways—by humility, friendship and by being courteous to our weaker neighbors. At our daily tasks, as students, we can show the spirit of nobleness by exercising patience, perseverance and uprightness in our work. We should take Christ, who suffered persecution with courageous humility, as our best example."

In the discussion which followed Singley and Deininger look part. The thought emphasized was strength of character in face of the opposition of those who scoff at religious activities. Loyalty to the principals of the association, of Christianity and the best life were urged.

Prof. Crow spoke briefly after the various committees had outlined their work for the year. His remarks were encouraging and we are always glad to hear from men of his type.

The constitutional amendment passed by the Student Senate several weeks ago has been ratified by two groups and rejected by two. Its fate rests on the decision of the Historical-Political group.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Schaff.

A pleasing and instructive general literary program was rendered in Schaff Hall last Friday evening. The numbers were as follows:

Piano solo, Miss Faulkner; essay on Martin G. Brumbaugh, Mr. Rumbaugh; republican campaign speech, Mr. Gingrich; reading from Brumbaugh, Mr. Johnson; chorus, Miss Peters, leader; essay on A. Mitchell Palmer, Mr. Beltz; vocal solo, Miss Klein; reading from Palmer Mr. Brown; musical recitation, Miss Kneedler; reading from Pinchot, Mr. Kehm; round song, Miss Paul leader; gazette, Mr. Smith. Under voluntary exercises Mr. Light made an ex-temporaneous Democratic speech, which was followed by a discussion of the aforementioned political leaders.

Zwinglian.

A very delightful and instructive miscellaneous program was rendered in Zwinglian Hall on Friday evening. The numbers were as follows:

Piano solo, Miss Pearson; paper, "The Mexican Situation," Mr. Mertz, read by Mr. Derr; mock oration, "Gasoline," Mr. Deiningger; vocal trio, Mr. Yeager, Misses Furman and Snyder; declamation, "Napoleon," Mr. C. Boyer; reading, Miss Furman; oration; Mr. Seaman, read by Mr. Lehman; Zwinglian Review, Mr. Grove; critic's remarks, Mr. I. Boyer.

sung and an enthusiastic yell had been given for Miss Davenport the boys formed a double line on each side of the girls and escorted them to Shreiner.

Dr. Omwake was then serenaded and he gave us an excellent speech. His remarks showed his sympathy with and support of real college spirit. All of the professors in town were given yells.

At about 12 o'clock the boys turned in and with the exception of several "crabs" and grinds who did not help all agreed that it was the biggest and best thing that Ursinus had ever seen.

We thank all those in town whose donations to the pile helped to make the fire an excellent part of the demonstration.

Rev. Wm. Toennes, '97, preached a series of 15 sermons on the Standard Doctrine of the Reformed church in Grace Church, Hazleton.

On April 9, Mr. Paul A. Mertz, '10, was united in wedlock to Miss Anna Lee Fox of Murfreesboro at the home of the bride. Mr. Mertz is an instructor in the English department of the Trenton, N. J., High School.

base hits—Mitterling 2, Jones. Stolen bases—Mitterling, Bedenk. Double plays—Boyer, unassisted; Butler to Bedenk to Boyer; Walker to Jones to Walker. Left on bases—Ursinus, 7; F. & M., 6. Struck out—by Johnson, 7; by Hedeman, 3; by Sassaman, 2. Base on balls—Johnson, 1; Hedeman, 1; Sassaman, 1. Hits—off Hedeman, 12 in 7 innings; off Sassaman, 3 in 2 innings. Time of game—1.50. Umpire—Hartman.

A very pleasing concert was given by the class of music history in Bomberger Hall on Thursday afternoon. The program consisted of instrumental and vocal selections from four composers—Mendelssohn, Schumann, Chopin and Liszt. Miss Davenport played selections from each of the composers. Mr. Yeager rendered a piano solo, Misses Furman and Klein and Messrs. Yeager and Thena sang well in a quartet selection from Mendelssohn, Misses Snyder and Klein sang "The Two Grenadiers" from Schumann, a duet from Chopin was sung by Misses Hyde and Snyder, and Miss Homer played one of Liszt's compositions.

Miss Carrie M. Kerschner, ex-'01, at present preceptress at Allentown College for Women, has been elected by the Home Mission Board of the Reformed Church as American teacher in the Japanese Mission at San Francisco. She has accepted the challenge and will take up the duties in her new field on September 1st.

Rev. J. M. S. Isenberg, '93, of Philadelphia, was recently granted an increase of $300 in his salary.
