DEWEES FRANKLIN SINGLEY.

Such talent as was exhibited to a large audience in Bomberger Hall on Monday evening was never before excelled at Ursinus College. The seven men who spoke showed unusually thorough preparation. Without exception the orations were composed of excellent language, beautiful style, and profound thought. That the methods of the presentation were appreciated was evident from the hearty applause of the entire audience.

The following orations were delivered: "The Significance of the Middle Class in America," Roy Linden Minich, Blaine, Pa.; "The Awakening Public Consciousness," Ralph John Harrity, Braddock, Pa.; "Our Medical Heroes," Merrill Wagner Yost, Collegeville, Pa.; "The Boy of To-day," Charles Frederick Deininger, Newark, N. J.; "Rejected Stones," Dewees Franklin Singley, Oneida, Pa.; "Letting in the Light," Albert Vogel, Philadelphia, Pa.; and "A Chapter from the Book of World Peace," William Leroy Fink, Pottstown, Pa.

The Judges—J. Ambler Williams, Esq., Norristown, Pa.; Prof. John D. Warnock, Ph. D., Pottstown, Pa., and the Rev. Harry W. Bright, Norristown, Pa., awarded the first prize, the Hobson Medal, to Mr. Singley; second prize, the Meminger Medal, to Mr. Harrity; and honorable mention to Mr. Deininger.

Mr. Singley has been closely connected with Ursinus since 1909, when he entered the academy. Since that time he has been a helpful factor to his college, and has made many lasting friends who extend their heartiest congratulations for his recent success.

The winner of the second prize, Mr. Harrity, came to us from Braddock High School in the year 1911. He has been an active worker in the numerous college activities and a loyal supporter of Ursinus. His success brings much happiness to his friends.

Mr. Deininger came to Ursinus in 1911, after attending the High School of Newark, N. J. He has, for the last two years, won distinction as the "all around man of his class," and commands the respect of the entire student body.

44TH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

Closing Exercises Were Held in Bomberger on Wednesday.

The annual commencement exercises were held in Bomberger Hall on Wednesday at 10.30 a. m. A large audience taxed the chapel to its capacity. Deimer's Orchestra of Pottstown furnished the music for about half an hour before the program began.

The invocation was offered by Rev. Philip Vollmer, D. D., of Dayton, Ohio. Miss Sigafos was excused from delivering the salutatory oration because of physical indisposition and M. A. Hess substituted, the subject of his oration being, "Our Duty Towards Latin America." He emphasized the need of recognition of the obligations which the Monroe Doctrine places upon us. We must show ourselves as the big brothers and advisors to the South American countries.

Miss Edna M. Wagner delivered the valedictory oration, "Present Tendencies in Education." Her oration was well written and she showed herself mistress of the subject. She traced the development of the processes of pedagogy and emphasized the tendency to draw ability out of a pupil rather than drive knowledge into him through memory. Education, in the highest sense is to be a selective agency to fit people for better service.

"A Truly Democratic Education," was the subject of the commencement oration delivered by Rev. Ethelbert D. Warfield, D. D., LL. D., president of Layayette College. In his introduction he complimented Miss Wagner upon her excellent oration. His address was inspiring and enlightening. The course of democracy from Greece to the present day was traced and many striking lessons and pictures were drawn. The main points emphasized were, the aim of democracy is to lift the people up through trained intelligence to the appreciation of the best in life; the triumph of democracy is the love of God and country.

Dr. Omwake conferred the degrees upon the honorary guests and graduates and then spoke to the graduating class.

SUNDAY PROGRAM BEGINS EXERCISES

Baccalaureate Sermon Full of Inspiration and Instruction.

A very inspiring sermon was delivered Sunday evening, June 7, to the graduating class and friends, by the Reverend Frederick Lynch, D. D., of New York. Special music was rendered by the College Choir, which sang a chorus from Gounod's "Gallia." A selection from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," was also sung by Mr. J. Leroy Robinson.

Doctor Lynch spoke about the adjustments which must necessarily be made in order to achieve a well-rounded and successful life. Three he mentioned which are all unavoidable, inevitable and unescapable, for, "Life is simply an adjustment to environment."

The first adjustment is the right relationship with the fact of Christ. Christ permeates all the life about us. Even the literature is full of Him. Maladjustment with this fact results in men with anaemic minds.

The second relationship is that of the man to humanity. There is no real individualism until after death. We must recognize this first for the sake of others; for there can be no civilization unless it is recognized. Then we must do so for our own sake, since "We do not grow by what is given to us but by what we give."

Adjustment to the great social factors and forces about us is the third requisite. For of the problems we must encounter are the temperance problem, the movement toward international peace, the immigration problem, and the problem of foreign missions. Before the members of the graduating class, God has set an open door, and it is for them to dedicate themselves to leadership.

The following men were awarded "U's" by the Athletic Committee for work on the Varsity: Boyer, '14, Elicker, '14, Mitterling, '15, Adams, '16, Butler, '16, Diemer, '16, Johnson, '16, Kennerly, '16, Sturgart, '16, Bedenk, '17, Reiff, '17. The "A. U. A." men for this year are: Heller, '14, Seaman, '14, Gingrich, '16, Kerschner, '16, Light, '16, Rutledge, '16, Grove, '17, Kaltrieder, '17, Shaub, '17, Strasbaugh, '17.

EDITORIAL

The good-byes have all been said and the work of the year brought to a close. To many it has meant the severing of all the ties which hold us to one another and to some it has meant the passing of another mile stone in the four year course.

The WEEKLY desires to extend to the graduates its best wishes for success in life, to the undergraduates the hope of a pleasant summer, to the faculty appreciation for their instruction and patience with us during the year, to the administration thanks for the pleasant conditions under which we live in the dormitories and to our readers thanks for the support it has received during the year.

May Ursinus be uppermost in your minds during the summer, that those with whom you come in contact may catch some of your enthusiasm and help in the building up of a bigger Ursinus.

Class Day Exercises.

On Monday at two o'clock the members of the class of 1914 took their first real part in the exercises of commencement week, when they presented their Class Day program in Bomberger Hall.

The President's address by Kell, was followed by a reading, Sohrab and Rustum, by Miss Ferree. Elicker delivered the Class History and Boyer the Mantle Oration. The prophecy was ably taken care of by Misses Barnett and Rumbaugh and the presentations by Peters, Ensminger and Yeager. Misses Wagner, Scheuren and Peters performed most acceptably at the piano and these numbers with the mixed choruses proved to be the features of the program.

After the singing of the class song the assemblage proceeded to the West Campus, where the Tree Oration was delivered by Eby, and the archives were buried by Fisher and Heller. Adams, '16, in behalf of the Sophomore class, accepted the class spade from the Seniors.

One of the largest crowds that ever witnessed Class Day exercises was in attendance, the chapel being taxed to its capacity. The program was both interesting and beneficial, and, despite the sweltering heat, every one present thoroughly enjoyed the festivities of the day.

Alumni Oration.

A public meeting of the Ursinus Alumni Association was held in Bomberger auditorium at eight o'clock on Tuesday evening. The Alumni oration, "The Challenge to Leadership," was delivered by Rev. A. D. Wolfinger, of Philadelphia. In addition to this literary number the program consisted of an instrumental duet by Misses Wiest and Rahn, a vocal solo by Miss Detwiler and a mixed quartet.

The oration was interesting and well delivered. On account of its modern significance the address was thoroughly appreciated by the audience. The following were some of the points that the speaker brought forth in his discourse: This is an age of democracy. Every movement in the history of civilization centers about leaders—great personalities. The many are led by the few. Leaders are needed today in politics, in the commercial and industrial world, among employees, in education, and in religion. Strong and vigorous leadership is necessary under present conditions of the race. For the readjustment of existing conditions it is essential to have an adequate intellectual grasp for the solution of great problems; a sympathetic attitude of the leaders to one another; religious and moral convictions. There are great systems that must be overcome in our industrial world. Principles of submission to moral laws are essential to success. Moral principles should be enthroned in the schools and every institution of the land.

The class of 1914 was very successful in its financial affairs. When it closed up the books last week a surplus of about $70.00 was turned over to the library fund. The business managers of the Ruby are to be especially complimented for their success in closing the year with a profit.

Alumni Meeting.

On Tuesday, at two o'clock, the alumni association convened in regular session in Bomberger Hall. About one hundred were in attendance and the meeting throughout proved to be of unusual interest and importance.

Under the election of officers, W. M. Rife, '98, was chosen president for the coming year. M. A. Keasey, '06, was made vice-president, C. D. Yost, '91, sec'y-treas., I. F. Wagner, '91, historian, and W. A. Kline, '93, librarian. Miss Rena Sponsler, '10, will represent the alumni association on the board of control of the WEEKLY, and R. E. Miller, '05, on the athletic association. Chas. A. Wagner, of Wilmington, Del., was selected to deliver the alumni oration in 1915. He is a member of the class of '06, and is commissioner of the schools of Delaware. The new president was valedictorian of the class of '98 and is at present head of the schools at Huntingdon, Pa.

After the business had been transacted, those present adjourned to the dining hall, where a sumptuous banquet awaited them. A. H. Hendricks, Esq., '88, was toastmaster of the occasion, and Messrs. Rife, '98, Wolfinger, '88, Erb, '93, Vollmer, '99, Price, '05, and Miss Duryea, '08, spoke on the past conditions and future prospects of Ursinus. The formation of two associations—the Alumni Athletic, and the Woman's Alumni—was formally announced.

Band Concert and Baseball Game

An excellent band concert was rendered on the East Campus, beginning at 1.30 p. m. on Wednesday by the Pottstown Band. A large gathering of music lovers gathered on the campus to enjoy the music and renew old acquaintances.

The annual game between the Varsity and the Alumni was held on Patterson Field later in the afternoon. Seven innings were played and the final score was 11 to 0. One of the best games of many years was played by the Alumni. Paist pitched for several innings and then H. Mathieu, '13, relieved him. All who played thoroughly enjoyed the sport, although the fans were not very enthusiastic. The afternoon was scorching and energy was at a premium.

Miss Helen T. Miller, '11, has been re-elected to her position in the Glassboro, N. J. High School for the coming year, with an advance in salary.

Morvin Godshall, '11, is the proud "dad" of a baby girl.
