URSINUS VICTORS IN HARD BATTLE

Red and Black Team Triumphs over Gettysburg Eleven by
Score of 21 to 6

In one of the fiercest gridiron battles ever waged on Patterson Field Ursinus defeated the strong Gettysburg team by 21 to 6, Saturday afternoon. This was the first time in a number of years that the two college elevens were opponents, no games being played since 1907 when Gettysburg won by a score of 12 to 0.

Both teams were pretty nearly matched in weight with Gettysburg averaging a few pounds heavier. The Ursinus eleven, however, displayed a more thorough knowledge of football and had a faster backfield than Gettysburg. The game was marred somewhat by frequent wrangling and rough work, Gettysburg being the chief offender. Several penalties were inflicted by the officials on Gettysburg for slugging and tripping.

The game was replete with sensational plays and kept the large crowd continually on its feet. Captain Yoh was in every play on the defensive and gained many yards by his brilliant cross tackle runs. Nork played his best game thus far at Ursinus, seldom failing to make a substantial gain when called upon for a line plunge. He has to his credit the second of Ursinus' touchdowns, making two runs around right end for 20 and 10 yards, almost unaided, and breaking through half of Gettysburg's team. On the defense he showed improvement.

Wall, Mitterling and Kennedy played a strong game in the backfield. Hallman at end, Gingrich at tackle and Gormley at guard were also strong factors in the victory.

For Gettysburg Captain Beagle, Spangler and Leathers played best. Gettysburg made her touchdown in the third period when Spangler picked up a bad pass from Erickson and ran 25 yards for a touchdown. The game in detail follows:

First Quarter

Gettysburg kicked off and downed Mitterling. Yoh started off with 5 yards through right tackle and Mitterling followed with 15 yards around left end. Ursinus fumbled but recovered but fumbled again and lost the ball to Gettysburg. Gains were now made by Gettysburg around left end and through the line for a first down and again through the line and by a short forward pass for another first down. Ursinus held, however, and secured the ball on downs. Mitterling made 15 yards around left end and Nork added 25 around right end. On a line plunge Nork gained 3 yards and Kennedy 5 more and Yoh took the ball across the line for a touchdown. Mitterling kicked the goal. Ursinus 7, Gettysburg 0.

Second Quarter

Gettysburg kicked off. Nork, Mitterling and Yoh made the required 10 yards but Ursinus was forced to punt. Gettysburg was penalized for tripping. Gingrich made 4 yards and Yoh 20 yards on tackle runs. A forward pass was caught by a Gettysburg man. A first down was made around right end. Hallman spilled the next play and Gingrich stopped a line plunge. Leathers of Gettysburg made 8 yards and first down around left end but Gormley broke through the line and spoiled Gettysburg's next two plays and forced them to punt. On the first play, however, Ursinus fumbled and a Gettysburg man covered the ball. Two yards around right end and the second quarter ended with the ball in Gettysburg's possession on Ursinus' 45 yard line.

Third Quarter

Ursinus kicked off and Wiedorn threw the man before he advanced a yard. Gettysburg on a line plunge and end runs made a first down but were soon forced to punt. Ursinus fumbled but Gingrich recovered it. Ursinus was forced to punt. Schaefer of Gettysburg blocked the punt but Gormley scooped it up and made 16 yards before he was tackled. Nork made first down on two line plunges. Gettysburg was penalized for the appearance of their coach on the field and a little later for rough work. Mitterling failed on an end run but Nork made 20 yards and then 10 more for a touchdown. Mitterling kicked a difficult goal. Ursinus 14, Gettysburg 0.

Wall brought back the kickoff, but a bad pass by Erickson was recovered by Spangler of Gettysburg, who ran 25 yards for a touchdown. The goal was not kicked. Ursinus, 14, Gettysburg, 6.

After receiving the ball, Gettysburg made a beautiful forward pass for 25 yards. Hallman threw the next man for a loss and Wall spoiled an attempted forward pass.

Fourth Quarter

Gettysburg again tried a forward pass but Nork received it. Yoh made first down and Gingrich and Wall made another. Nork, Yoh and Wall again made the 10 yards but Ursinus fumbled and lost the ball. Gettysburg failed to gain through the line and punted out of bounds. Nork made 6 yards on a line plunge, Gingrich made it a first down and again made 5 more through left tackle. Nork and Wall took the ball to Gettysburg's 15 yard line. Yoh and Gingrich brought the ball to the 1 yard line and Wall took it over the line. Mitterling again kicked the goal. Ursinus 21, Gettysburg, 6.

With forty-five seconds to play Yoh caught the kickoff and ran the ball back to the middle of the field.

The lineup:

Ursinus	Gettysburg
Seaman left end	Spangler
Yoh left tackle	Duebhorn

FIELD CAGE FUND SLOWLY IN- CREASING

During the past week a number of responses to Coach Price's appeal as printed in this paper a week ago have been received.

The majority, however, of those to whom the appeal was addressed thus far have failed to show any interest in the new building. The walls of the field cage are one-half finished and at the present rate of construction will be completed within a short time.

The personal inspection by any alumni or friends of the college is welcomed and will remove any doubts as to its high value when in operation.

The responses are encouraging to the leaders of the project but are not numerous enough to meet necessary payments as they fall due.

Following are the names of those whose subscriptions were received during the past week:

URSINUS LOSES TO PENNSYLVANIA 34-0

Forward Passes and Mercer's Running Aid Pennsylvania in Defeating Ursinus

Ursinus met the University of Pennsylvania on Franklin Field on Wednesday and although playing a strong game, lost to the heavy Penn team by five touchdowns.

Penn truly feared the team from Ursinus and had the Ursinus eleven the energy and endurance it displayed in the first quarter, there might be a different tale to relate.

It was an entirely new team that represented Ursinus. Only Captain Yoh remained of the famous 1910 team which administered a 8 to 5 defeat. Only three players were remaining from the 1911 team, which team held Penn to a 9 to 0 score.

In the first quarter Ursinus clearly outplayed Pennsylvania and brought the ball to within striking distance of Penn's goal line, but an unfortunate pass lost 18 yards and prevented any scoring by Ursinus. Although Ursinus fumbled at the outset a fumble by Penn gave the ball to Ursinus again and started them down the field. Kennedy made sensational runs with the ball and with Mitterling, Nork, Wall, Yoh and Gingrich had the supporters of Pennsylvania fearful of another defeat like that of 1910.

During the second and third quarters, the ball was in Pennsylvania's possession the greater part of the time. A well executed forward pass from Minds to Jourdet resulted in a touchdown after which Minds kicked the goal. Penn had now been aroused to the fighting pitch and by a series of forward passes, end runs, line plunges and delayed plays added two more touchdowns, Captain Mercer being the individual star in this and the following quarter. The score at the end of the first half was 21 to 0.

The third quarter was a repetition of the second in that Penn was in possession of the ball most of the time. Two more touchdowns were added by Penn, Mercer carrying the ball across both times. Craig, who had been substituted for Heilman of Penn, made it possible for Penn to score during this quarter. The score at the end of the quarter was 34 to 0.

No scoring was done in the last quarter, Ursinus frequently throwing the Penn men for losses. Substantial gains were made during this quarter by Yoh and Kennedy. Seamaa, Wiedorn and Nork were hard men for Penn to pass. The game ended Penn 34, Ursinus 0.

The line-up:

Penn	Ursinus
Young left end	Seaman
McCall center	Erickson

HISTORICAL - POLITICAL GROUP

The first meeting of the Historical-Political Group for the collegiate year was held on Monday evening in the History room.

At that time the Freshman members were given an opportunity to be come familiar with the workings of the organization through remarks made by the president, and to become acquainted with the new Group Adviser and the older members in the course of a social session.

Plans were formulated whereby meetings might be held every two weeks at which papers would be read and topics discussed, with occasional addresses by outside speakers. The largest membership in the

ELECTRICITY FOR LIGHT INEXPENSIVE

Good light lends cheer and comfort to every home and one enjoyed you will hesitate to return to the use of kerosene lamps.

As an example of what it costs we give you the average costs of lighting during the shortest days of the year. You require artificial light in the kitchen on such days on an average of four hours, and with the 25 watt Mazda lamp, you would consume 100 watts; in the dining-room the average is three hours, and with the 40 watt Mazda lamp you would consume 120 watts; in the library or sitting-room the average is 200 watts; in the bath-room you would consume 25 watts; with three sleeping rooms, and using the 25 watt Mazda lamp, and an average lighting of three hours, you would consume 75 watts; a total of 625 watts.

Our rate is 1 cent per 1000 watts, with a minimum rate of $1.50 per month, for which we allow 1500 watts. You may not require light as many hours as we have figured, and you may not use it in many rooms as above described, but if you use it as illustrated it will cost but a fraction over 8 cents per night, and on the days when the sun rises late and sets early.

Let us help you to turn winter nights into summer evenings.

EDITORIAL

In the college of the co-educational type, it is or should be an end of the forces in charge to provide in some way for the association and therefore the social development of their constituency.

It is hard to justify good intentions along other lines if trifling consideration is taken in regard to what an important purpose of the institution in question should be. Mere scholastic training may be acquired at separate colleges for men and separate colleges for women; social training may best be acquired at the colleges where are gathered the elements of society

Weak and inefficient are the graduates who know nothing of men before meeting them in the world, and weak and inefficient are institutions which do not attempt to help them to know.

Colleges are known by their alumni, and if these same ladies and gentlemen do not present a 'spick and span' appearance in their after life, if they are unable to converse intelligently and show signs of broadening, and measure up to standards set for college men and women, the colleges from which they come are soon, and rightly, relegated to where they belong by the general public.

At Ursinus we might truly have more opportunity to indulge in the

CLASSICAL GROUP MEETING
 The first regular meeting of the Classical Group was held on Thursday evening in the Philosophy room.
 Group business was transacted previous to the literary part of the program, which was easily the feature of the evening.

The Group had as its guest Dr.
 Dresser, the head of the Department of Philosophy, who spoke on "The Merits of a Classical Education."
 Dr. Dresser spoke most enlightening-ly of the rich benefits which we derive from the study of the classics, particularly Greek. The influence of Greek literature and Greek philosophy, as the sources of modern literature and philosophy can hardly be over emphasized. They are important in modern education not only because of their cultural value but because of the ability for thought and insight which they stimulate. We do not hesitate in saying that Dr.
 Dresser's address was one of the most interesting ever presented to the group.

Prof. Kline, as adviser of the group spoke to the group for a short time.
 Refreshments and a social period
 were entered into and enjoyed by all.
 The next meeting of the group will be held Tuesday evening, November 12.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS

Y. W. C. A.

Miss Peters led the regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday night and discussed in a very helpful manner the topic, "Character and Courtesy." Her talk in brief was as follows:

Horace Greeley says that character is the only thing which endures; and the one great task of life is the building of character. Temptations constantly beset us and it is by firmly resisting these that we are strengthened.

As Christians we should "have compassion, love one another, return good for evil, and seek peace." Such a life will inspire unbelievers to know and glorify God.

Peter says: "Love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous." Courtesy is a Christian virtue, though we often forget that this is part of our religion. It is the little courtesies that sweeten life.

Dr. Omwake Spoke at Laymen's Missionary Convention.

Math Groups Meet

The Latin-Math and the Math-Physical Groups were delightfully intertained by Prof. and Mrs. Clawson at their home. Thursday evening. A short business meeting was held, after which the members participated in various social games. At a seasonable hour refreshments were served and the groups disbanded with yells for their host and hostess.

SOCIETY NOTES

Schaff

Schaff's numbers were given before a large audience on Friday evening. The program was general literary in character and fully maintained the high standard which was set in previous programs. The program follows:

Piano duet, Misses Peters and Booren. Essay, Mr. Singley. Reading, Miss Anna Schlichter. Impromptu speech, Mr. Keller. Vocal duet, Misses Moser and Detwiler.

Humorous reading, Mr. Elieker. Essay, Miss Moser. Recitation, Miss S. Talmage. Parliamentary drill, Mr. Small, leader. Cornet solo, Mr. Rumbaugh. Gazette, Mr. Reinhold.

Under voluntary exercises remarks were made by S. R. Detwiler, ex-13, Robbins, ex-13, and by Dr. Dresser. The society welcomed into its ranks Messrs. Gingrich, Light and Richards, all staunch members of the first year class.

Zwinglian

Resolved That the method used in the abolition of slavery in America was for "the best economical and social interests of the country"

This question was very well debated by Messrs. Boyer, Lockart, and Yeager on the affirmative side, and equally as well by Messrs. Harity, Minich and Bear on the negative. Mr. Minich's rebuttal is worthy of special mention, and won the debate for his side.

Other numbers on the program were a mixed chorus, Miss Hain leader, and the Review by Mr. Bear.

Under voluntary exercises Mr. Walter Douthett, '12 was called upon and responded with very timely remarks.

Into full active membership the society welcomed Mr. Rowland Mulford, of Fairtown, New Jersey.
