LOSE HARD GAME TO SWARTHMORE

Blocked Kicks Responsible for Two Touchdowns in Quakers' Victory, 20-0

The most spectacular and hardest fought game ever witnessed on Patterson Field was played on Saturday with the famous Swarthmore eleven and resulted in a defeat for Ursinus by a score of 20 to 0. A defeat it was by the score, but quite as much credit belongs to the vanquished as to the victors.

Ideal football weather prevailed and made both elevens play their best although the field was somewhat soggy from the heavy downpour the day before. A large crowd on the grandstand and along the sidelines, witnessed the best game of the year.

The conquerors of Pennsylvania and the Navy fully expected to roll up a big score but actually earned but one touchdown, the other two resulting from blocked punts. Both colleges have now won two games in the last four years, Ursinus winning in 1909 and 1910 by scores of 34 to 6 and 6 to 0, and Swarthmore in 1911 and 1912 by scores of 6 to 2 and 20 to 0.

The game was one of the cleanest contests ever played on the home grounds, only three penalties being inflicted during the entire game, two for a total of 20 yards being inflicted on Ursinus and one for 15 yards on Swarthmore. The forward pass, for which Swarthmore is famous, was tried 23 times by them but only three were successful and one of these traveled less than 8 yards. No less than nine of Swarthmore's passes were caught by Ursinus men, Nork catching three, Erickson and Mitterling each two, and Gingrich and Kennedy each one. None of Ursinus' three passes were successful. It was only in the last minute of play that Swarthmore succeeded in getting their forward passes working right and the last two gave Swarthmore their single earned touchdown.

In rushing Swarthmore was superior to Ursinus, gaining a total of 123 yards to Ursinus 82. Forward passes netted Swarthmore an additional 40 yards. Seven first downs were made by Swarthmore to Ursinus' three. Swarthmore gained most ground on MacKissick's runs around the ends behind splendid interference. Captain Geig, of Swarthmore, also made good gains. The soft condition of the field prevented Ursinus' light backfield from demonstrating their speed. Credit, however, must be accorded the fleet Swarthmore ends for brushing aside the interference time and again and tackling the runner for a loss.

Swarthmore scored twice during the second period when MacKissick punted and Melich recovered the ball on Ursinus' 15 yard line. Geig's pass was caught by Nork of Ursinus, but on attempting to kick out of danger, Hallman's punt was blocked and, then recovered by McKissick who carried the ball over for a touchdown. Later in the second period another punt was blocked and again recovered by a Swarthmore man over the goal line.

The last touchdown was made in the last minute of play as a result of two well executed forward passes of 10 and 35 yards. The last pass was made when the line of scrimmage was on the 10 yard line, but Geig in attempting to pass the ball to Melich, was forced back 25 yards by Seaman and Yoh.

Captains Yoh and Geig were the individual stars of the game both playing equally well on defensive and offensive. Ursinus' line outplayed Swarthmore's and of the linemen Seaman and Erickson played especially well. The backfield played a

COLLEGE LIFE AND IDEALS

Dr. Dresser Gives Second of Series of Lectures to Students

On Tuesday evening of last week Dr. Dresser gave his second talk on College Life and Ideals to an appreciative audience of students. His remarks were in part, as follows:

Here we come to consider life from our ideals of work. Each one is here in college to prepare to do something well along some line.

First we must form ideals of our work. There must be a connection between our work and our other school activities. We should make it a practice to take note of our habits and thus learn about ourselves. By this method we will have no difficulty in finding our faults, though they may be harder to correct. Let us find how we are working, what are our difficulties, why we fail, whether we prepare our work well, and if we take sufficient exercise. We must look closely into what we are to see what we need.

There are several interruptions during the school year, such as vacations, holidays, and college events. These things also make it harder to do the proper amount of work. The students who complain of lack of time should decide whether their primary purpose here is to acquire knowledge or to enjoy themselves. When this matter is decided, then follow the course laid out, even if the other is to be neglected, through lack of time. The location of our college is such that we have small temptations to give our time entirely to pleasure.

The day students have an advantage over the resident students in being able to do more connected work. It is even an advantage to live outside of the dormitories, especially if the early part of the evening is given over to rowdyism, and only the latter part to study. A student can not expect to do efficient work under such circumstances. No man in public life would arrange his work in this manner. The conditions in a dormitory are the result of the character of its residents. Let us try to discover and maintain those conditions under which we can do the best work. Let us observe regular habits, and have efficiency as the viewpoint from which we work.

Concentration is quite essential. The word means to bring back the mind to a subject from which it has wandered. This is a habit which may be developed. It is no doubt an advantage to be able to concentrate our minds under adverse conditions. To concentrate effectively one must have some definite end in view. However, it is not well to tax the mind for too long a period of time with one subject. Efficient work involves a great deal of planning and working ahead.

What does learning consist of? Do we learn simply by seeing and hearing. Learning is rather a reaction of thought.

SPECIAL HALLOWE'EN PROGRAMS RENDERED

Appropriate Entertainments Given by Both Societies on Friday Evening

Undoubtedly the best Hollowe'en program given in Zwinglian for some years was presented Friday evening. Great pains were taken to make the meeting the grand success it was. The decorating committee especially is to be commended for its good work in arranging very beautiful decorations in keeping with the occasion.

The program: Recitation, Mr. Deinger; vocal duet, Misses Fisher and Snyder; "Hallowe'en," Miss Rahn; piano solo, Mr. Kershner; male quartette, Messrs. Robinson, Yoh, Yeager and Pritchard; scenes from Macbeth, leaders, Miss Hain and Mr. Yingt; oration, Mr. Matlack; Review, Mr. Harrity. Worthy of especial mention were the scenes from Macbeth. The entire cast played their parts well. Messrs. Kantner and Derr and Misses Ebright, Fisher, Wagner and Barnet took leading parts. Zwing welcomed into active membership Messrs. Pritchard, Glendening and Grater.

Schaff's special Hollowe'en program on Friday night was of a high character. Much effort had been spent during the week in decorating the hall and the result was an effect very much in keeping with the occasion. The hall was well filled with visitors, among whom were a number of former Schaffites. After the program was rendered refreshments were served and numerous games were played.

The society welcomed into active membership Messrs. Bemisderfer, Gobrecht, Hoover, Myers and Rutledge.

The program follows: Chorus; essay, Cassel; ghost scene, Rumbaugh and Kichline; recitation, Miss Kemmerer, clarinet solo, Lauer; sketch, Ensminger and Miss Talmage leaders; piano duet, Misses Boorem and Bartman; Gazette, Reinhold.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting on Tuesday evening was led by Miss Bartman, who discussed a missionary topic—"Woman's Life in China." After describing the miserable lot of Chinese women prior to the recent revolution, Miss Bartman pointed out the changes in their conditions since the awakening. The Chinese to-day are ready to elevate and educate their women, and if left to themselves will probably train them in heathenism. It is therefore the duty of the Christian women of the world to make it possible for them to be educated as Christians.

EDITORIAL

Every student of Ursinus who has the best interests of the college at heart will join in condemning the deed of vandalism perpetrated by some person or persons on the eve of All Saints' Day.

In forcing an entrance to the library and breaking the entire organization of the library by piling the thousands of books indiscriminately upon the floor, the persons who accomplished the deed, hurt the student body even more than the college, first because, until the vandals are brought to their just punishment, suspicion will rest upon the entire student body; and secondly, because the library will be closed for some time until placed in order.

Such so-called "pranks" will not be countenanced and the offenders will, if caught, be dealt with severely.

— o —

The "Gettysburgian" of Oct. 23 contained in its editorial columns a lengthy article from the pen of some future Ingersoll, in which this distinguished writer made known Gettysburg's grievances resulting from the recent Gettysburg-Ursinus game.

We do not purpose to devote these columns to an answer to the statements made in the "Gettysburgian" nor to an apology where no apology is needed. Let our friends seek relief by giving vent to their feelings in whatever way they can. We stand our ground and will not retreat an inch.

One of the activities of our college life which is in a prosperous condition and is doing much good is the part played by the literary societies. We are fortunate in having two societies almost as old as the college itself and as firmly established. Other organizations have come and gone and have left little if any impression upon the student body, but year after year the literary societies can be found doing their good work and filling their part in the life of the undergraduate.

The training one receives in a literary society is just as valuable and as necessary in after life as that secured in the classroom. In the association of your fellowstudents one has an opportunity to make his individuality felt and develop talents which would otherwise remain hidden.

At the present time it is practically the only common meeting ground between members of all classes and of both sexes. It thus has a social as well as a literary side, although the one is somewhat restricted by the short time of the meetings.

No student in college should neglect to join one or the other society sometime in his college course. The earlier one joins, the better for the student and for the society, for both are mutually benefited. The pleasure one takes in the performance of his duty or in the satisfaction of having accomplished something well, more than repays the required fees and dues. The value received cannot well be measured in the terms of dollars and cents, but its results are certain to show in later life.

The college, recognizing the value of its literary societies, lends its moral support to their activities and is always ready to co-operate with them. It is our duty, then, as students to take full advantage of our opportunities and ally ourselves with the society of our choice.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS

Y. M. C. A.
 The meeting on Wednesday evening was of a discussional character and was interesting because those attending expressed themselves freely.

"Does the Y. M. C. A. have a real value in the college?" was the topic and the discussion was opened by Singley, '15. Prior to the meeting the interest of the students was drawn to a screen announcing the Y. M. C. A. meeting for the evening.

Deininger, Kell, Harrity, Wiedorn and Wetzel were among the students who spoke, while Dr. Dresser and Prof. Hirsch, our two faculty men most interested in the Y. M. C. A., also spoke.

The remarks were interesting because they brought out weak points in the association. The one most frequently mentioned was that of the proverbial discussion of only one side of a topic. Another mentioned was the fact that the Y. M. C. A. does not reach the men who do not attend the meetings.

In the first place efforts will be made to present both sides of the subjects and thereby attract those students whose views differ. The Y.
 M. C. A. should be a common meeting ground on which to discuss the vital problems of life. Let us lend a hand in making it such a place.

Historical-Political Group

The group held its second meeting of the year on Wednesday evening.
 Papers were read and discussed by Gregg, Davidheiser, and Kell. The topics were on some phase of "Labor Unions and Their Activities."
 A spirited discussion followed.

strong defensive game. For Swarthmore, MacKissick and Delaplaine were strong factors in the victory.

The game in detail follows:

First Quarter

MacKissick kicked off for Swarthmore to Yoh. Mitterling started with a brilliant run around end for 7 yds. Nork failed to gain through the line. Yoh added 2 yards on a tackle run but Ursinus lost the ball on downs. An offside play cost Ursinus 5 yds. No gain was made on two end runs and a penalty set Swarthmore back 15 yards. Geig made 2 yards and then tried a forward pass but Erickson caught it. Ursinus was forced to punt. MacKissick made a first down around right end but Yoh threw Geig for a loss on the next play. A forward pass failed. Geig made but 2 yards on a line plunge and again threw a forward pass that was intercepted by Erickson. A fumble, however, gave Swarthmore the ball. MacKissick and Clime made a first down but again a forward pass was intercepted, this time by Mitterling. Nork failed to gain and Hallman punted to midfield. A short forward pass to Geig gained nothing and 2 line plunges at right guard resulted in a loss. A forward pass was attempted and sailed into Nork's hands. He ran 10 yards before being tackled. A fumble again gave Swarthmore the ball. Seaman and Gormley threw the runners for losses on the next two plays. MacKissick made 5 yards on a delayed run. The ball was lost to Ursinus because Swarthmore had but six men on the line of scrimmage. The first period ended with Ursinus' ball on the 40 yard line.

Second Quarter

Kennedy made 2 yards on an end run but holding set Ursinus back 15 yards. Hallman punted. Geig made 5 yards around left end. A forward pass was spoiled by Erickson. A line plunge made 2 yards and a trick forward pass to MacKissick made 8 more. A first down was made on a line plunge but MacKissick was thrown for a loss. Hallman's punt was blocked and recovered by Swarthmore on the 2 yard line. Geig was thrown for a 10 yard loss but MacKissick on a wide end run went across for a touchdown. The kickoff failed. Mitterling kicked off and Minnich threw the man in his tracks. Line plunges made 5 yards but MacKissick punted. Kennedy was unable to handle it properly and a Swarthmore man recovered it. Geig made 3 yards on a double pass. MacKissick was unable to gain. A forward pass failed and another was caught by Mitterling. With no interference Mitterling was unable to gain. Again Swarthmore blocked the punt and the ball rolling across the goal line was recovered by Swarthmore for a touchdown. MacKissick kicked an easy goal. Mitterling kicked off. MacKissick fumbled and fell on the ball for a 25 yard loss and then punted to Kennedy. Nork made 5 yards on a line plunge and ended the quarter with the ball in the middle of the field. Swarthmore, 13, Ursinus, 0.

Third Quarter

Kennedy brought back Swarthmore's kickoff 15 yards. Yoh, Nork and Mitterling made 9 yards but failed by inches at first down. Gormley stopped Swarthmore's line plunge and Nork threw the next runner for a 15 yard loss. MacKissick punted to Kennedy. Gingrich and Yoh made first down on tackle runs. Kennedy made 1 yard around end and Nork 3, but a forward pass failed. Erickson and Gingrich stopped the next two plays on the line. A forward pass failed but a second was intercepted by Nork. Kennedy made 6 around right end but lost around left. Nork made 4 through the line. Hallman punted. Lutz made 12 yards on a line plunge but failed on a second line plunge.
