BASEBALL PROSPECT IS BRIGHTENING

Spring Weather Gives Brief Opportunity for Outdoor Work.
First Game Mar. 20.

Spring allowed three days of outdoor practice in the early part of the week and then gave way to winter again and accordingly outdoor practice had to be discontinued until more favorable weather arrived. The short outdoor practice gave Coach Price and those interested in the baseball team a chance to size up the possibilities of the coming season. On all three days during which fair weather prevailed, teams were picked and games played. Needless to say the "Regulars" were generally able to score more runs than the "Yanigans."

Of the Varsity of the 1912 season, but five men remain, four having graduated and two not returning to school. Accordingly a new team must be organized with these men as a nucleus and with what material the Freshman class can supply. Of the old team, Captain Gay on the initial sack, Boyer on the mound, Mitterling and E. Kichline in the infield and P. Mathieu in the outfield will probably retain their positions.

Of the new men, Stugart and Adams, both of Slippery Rock Normal School, Nork of Shenandoah High School, Kennedy, of Northeast Manua, will probably make berths. The pitching staff in addition to Boyer, will probably be made up of Weller, Johnson and Pritchard. The infield positions are not settled with the exception of first base. Mitterling and Adams have alternated at second and third base, while Nork was tried at short stop. E. Kichline will probably be used as a utility man.

With their ultimate ambition to become Varsity men a number have reported who have been placed on the second team. Among these are Seaman, Glendenning, Heller, Reinhold, Mertz, Eutler, Miller, Yoh, Ritter, R. Kichline, Thomas, Diemer, Myers.

RICHARD ALLEN ARMS

SENIOR HONORS AWARDED.

Faculty Awards First and Second Place to Those Highest in Scholarship.

At their meeting on Tuesday evening the Faculty officially designated Richard Allen Arms, of Pottstown, as Valedictorian, and Miss Georgine Ashenfelter, of Arcola, as Salutatorian of the class of 1913.

This selection was not unexpected on the part of their classmates. Both have made excellent records during their collegiate course. Both were members of the Latin Mathematical group.

Arms is a native of Pottstown, Pa., and received his secondary work in the schools of that city, graduating from Pottstown High School in 1909 with first honors. He is at present registered for department honors in Philosophy. Arms intends to take graduate work in mathematics at the University of Pennsylvania after receiving his degree from Ursinus.

Miss Ashenfelter attended West Chester Normal School previous to entering college. She has had some experience in teaching and intends to continue in this profession after graduation.

Y. W. C. A. CANDY FETE.

The Y. W. C. A. girls held a candy and sandwich sale on Thursday evening in Shreiner Hall from 7 to 8 p. m. The purpose of the fete was to raise funds to send delegates to the annual conference held during the summer. Homemade sandwiches, fudge and other candies were placed on sale and disappeared before the hour was up. A "grab bag" was also one of the centers of attraction. In addition to having a good time, the association netted a neat sum from the sale and there are rumors that it will be repeated.

SOCIETY NOTES

Schaff

The following program was rendered in Schaff society on Friday night: Piano solo, Miss Peters; essay, Miss Sigafoos, Musical recitation, Miss Hanson, impromptu speeches, Mr. Light and Miss G. Talmage, round song Mr. Rumbaugh leader, declamation, Mr. Smith, dialogue, Messrs. Myers and Gobrecht, vocal solo, Miss Moser, declamation, Mr. Hoover, Gazette Miss West.

Among the best numbers of the evening were the declamation by Mr. Smith and the Gazette by Miss West. Next week's program will be a debate on the woman suffrage question. Three young ladies of the society will defend the affirmative side of the question, while the negative side will be argued by three of the young men. Considerable interest has been aroused on the question and the debate promises to be a good one.

Zwinglian.

Resolved, That the Congress of the United States should enact more stringent immigration laws, was the question discussed in Zwing on Friday evening.

Messrs. Kell, Hess and Boyer, debated the affirmative side, while Messrs. Glendenning, Minich, and Gregg put up a winning argument for the negative.

Other numbers on the program were a piano solo by Mr. Kershner, a vocal solo by Mr. Yeager, and the Zwinglian Review by Mr. Deininger.

Shreiner Entertains.

Saturday night was made the occasion by the girls of Shreiner Hall to entertain young men from the college. The evening was spent in making old fashioned taffy and at this industry they became adept. After several hours the evening was brought to a close.

LAST NUMBER OF LECTURE COURSE

Mr. Walt Halcomb Gives Interesting Comparison of Modern Day Industrial Conditions.

The last number of this year's Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. lecture course was given in Bomberger Hall Wednesday evening before a good crowd. Mr. Walt Halcomb presented his lecture "Halcomb's Horse Race," which is a development of the present economic and social conditions in the figure of a horse race.

Mr. Halcomb's first entry was what he termed "The Red Horse of Capitalism." His stall is in the New York Stock Exchange. He is fed by the sugar trust, glossed by the oil trust shod by the steel trust and warmed by the coal trust. His natural gait is running away. He is a menace to government and property.

His second entry was a plain old work horse called "The Pale Horse of Socialism." The red horse is overpaid, overfed and over-rested. The pale horse is underpaid, underfed and overworked. When the pale horse is pushed too hard he kicks over the traces but the trouble is that instead of hitting the red horse he hits the American people. Socialism, according to Halcomb's view, is a cross between politics and religion and is neither good politics nor good religion. A few years ago business was competition, to-day it is co-operation. If we wish to control the monopoly we must breed up our stock, in other words we must educate the common people. The plow horse must get the buggy gait. So also the young man or young woman who wishes to come to his or her own, to come to the front, must learn to command instead of being commanded.

The third entry in the race was "The Black Horse of Anarchism." And this is not alone the anarchism which disregards civil authority. There is another and more subtle kind of anarchism rampant. It is the anarchism in the home, the disregard of the higher law. The anarchism.

IN MEMORIAM.

Strong in the minds of those who love.
His memory lingers dear.
Affections true do in us move,
To one whom we revere.
Now in eternal rest.

The world moves on in busy mart,
But ever in the strife,
We hold enshrined within the heart.
This brotherhood in life.
Gone to eternal rest.

An humble life, but great the need,
Of simple brotherhood.
So may we live, let others read.
Can one do greater good?
Until eternal rest.

—Albert Holt.

EDITORIAL

Since the beginning of the new year, the Faculty has found it necessary to require the permanent or the temporary absence of several students who it is alleged were implicated in some of the malicious mischief which has taken place at various times during the present collegiate year. As a result a good deal of criticism has arisen, criticism, just and unjust, against various bodies connected with the college's activities.

Some of this criticism has been directed against the Faculty, more or less because very little is known of their action beyond the fact that some student has been indefinitely suspended. Since the establishment of a system of student government the Faculty has left practically all of the matters requiring correction to this body and fairly good results have been secured. Those in authority have, however, repeatedly made the statement that if they found it necessary they would dispense with argument and act as they saw fit. No occasion for such action occurred until several weeks ago and the problem is therefore a new one.

Criticism has also been directed against the Student Senate for their inaction during the past few weeks. The action of the Senate thus far has been in cases brought to its attention by members of the Senate acting as a representative of the students or upon his own responsibility, or by the Dean of the College. The Senate has not assumed original jurisdiction although the Constitution gives it that power with reference to the affairs of a group. Among other duties the Constitution gives the Senate power "to hear and act upon appeals or communications from any of the groups or from any student or officer of the college . . . ." Thus it appears that if any action is to be taken by the Student Senate, it should be originated and brought to the attention of this body by those vitally affected by the recent ruling. The Senate stands between the student body and the Faculty and if the matter could be arranged by this method, it would result, we hope, in satisfaction on the part of all concerned. Up to date, nothing has been done which has been made public and although some time has been lost it might be well to consider the possibility of such action.

JOINT MEETING OF Y. M. AND Y. W. C. A.

"The Great Appeal and Grand Choice," was the subject of Prof. Kline's inspiring address at the joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday evening. His text was taken from Joshua 24:15 — "Choose ye this day whom ye will serve; as for me and my house we will serve the Lord." This appeal, he said, has added force because it was made by the great leader, Joshua, at Shechem, a place hallowed through sacred associations, and it brings home to us several great moral truths.

1. Service is a matter of choice. Man is a free moral agent. Each of us must choose for himself whether he will serve the true God; and why should any one choose unworthily? Salvation is free. "Whosoever will may come."

2. Service is determined by rational considerations. True religion appeals to the reason as well as to the emotions, and not exclusively to either. If we choose God's service and keep our minds clear and our hearts pure, we will never regret the choice.

3. The critical occasion of choice is NOW. There is danger in delay; we may never have another chance. The choice of God's services is encouraged by noble personal example.

The world has great need of leaders to-day, and is naturally and rightfully looking to the schools and colleges for these leaders. Joshua dared to stand alone for God—to decide firmly and abide by his choice. His appeal comes to us to-day as a challenge. We must choose for our selves. Shall we choose to serve God?

AMONG OTHER COLLEGES.

Yale's new university athletic committee has determined to stamp out the summer baseball evil once and for all, and to this end has framed a set of rules which will forbid any man to take part in athletics in New Haven who has during the previous summer, received any compensation whatsoever for playing on any team.

The University of Pittsburg will pass a rule permitting its athletes to play summer baseball, provided they give up other forms of athletics after September 15, save that in which they will compete for the University.

The University of California has decided to award "C's" to the members of its intercollegiate debating teams. The University of Wisconsin has also decided to give a literary journalistic letter.

By a radical change in the rules of the Cornell honor system, a man must be found guilty of unfairness in examinations twice before being expelled. The penalty for the first offense is now simply to repeat the course. Moreover, the same pledge as is used in Princeton must now be signed at the end of examinations.

The Intercollegiate Soccer League opens the spring season on March 15. Fifteen games will be played between the members of the league,

Math Groups Meet at Shreiner.

The Math Groups were very delightfully entertained at Shreiner Hall on Thursday evening. The program was of a very interesting nature. Pro Clawson gave an excellent talk on "English Architecture" explaining by illustrated views the development of the various stages. He told of the influence of the Romans on English art when they were in possession of the British Isle about 55 B. C., and which resulted in such styles as the Norman and the Gothic types of today. The next number was a paper, "Is Woman Suffrage Desirable?" by Miss Rogers.

As a fitting climax the groups played various round games and partook of dainty refreshments.

chism which barter, through the marriage vow, the American millions for the empty foreign title. We have much of our divorce evil as a consequence of this.

The last entry was the "White Horse of Altruism." He is beautiful to look upon. His lines are symmetrical. He stands for righteousness. He gives to every one a square deal. He is the remedy for the conditions resulting from the red and other horses. All these horses are entered in the race. If any of the others win it will mean the subversion of our government and the destruction of our homes. But if the white horse wins it will mean the advance of education, equal opportunities for all and prosperity for the nation.

Mr. Halcomb's lecture, while not profound, was nevertheless presented in a forceful manner, and he had the interested attention of his audience throughout the lecture.

Marlin Big Game
 REPEATING RIFLES

The Special Smokeless Steel barrel, rifled deep on the Ballard system, creates perfect combustion, develops highest velocity and hurls the bullet with utmost accuracy and mightiest killing impact.

The mechanism is direct-acting, strong, simple and perfectly adjusted. It never clogs. The protecting wall of solid steel between your head and cartridge keeps rain, sleet, snow and all foreign matter from getting into the action. The side ejection throws shells away from line of sight and allows instant repeat shots always. New .33-caliber now ready.

Built in perfect proportion throughout, in many high power calibers, it is a quick handling, powerful, accurate gun for all big game.

Every hunter should know all the Marlin characteristics. The Marlin Firearms Co. Send for our free catalog. Enclose 3 stamps for postage. 42 Willow Street New Haven, Conn.
