URSINUS WINS FROM VILLA NOVA

Home Team is Superior to the Main Liners in All Departments.

Ursinus got sweet revenge for a 6-5 defeat earlier in the season by winning from Villa Nova on Patterson Field, last Wednesday, 10 to 2. Our team was at its best. Thirteen hits were collected from Minich and Kelley and only one error was made. Weller pitched a splendid game and allowed but four hits. He struck out nine of the Villa Nova batters.

Ursinus got her first run in the second inning. Gay, the first man up, drew a base on balls. Adams sacrificed and Gay went to second. Johnson hit a fast one through second and Gay scored. Weller struck out and Kennedy went out on a fly to center.

In the third, Mathieu went out—second to first. Mitterling got four balls and took third on Boyer's hit. Stugart went out on a fielder's choice and Mitterling scored. Gay tipped a high foul and retired the side.

Ursinus started the fourth with an out at first. Johnson hit through short. Weller was made out at first. Kennedy was hit by a pitched ball, forcing Johnson to second. Boyer was out—third to first. In Villa Nova's half of the sixth, Pendergast went out on a foul to Stugart. O'Leary made a two base hit and scored on Cosgrove's hit. Gibson struck out and Hekey went out at first. Johnson started our half of the sixth with a hit. Weller struck out. Kennedy hit, advancing Johnson to second. Mathieu hit for two bases and Johnson scored. Mitterling got on first through an error by the left fielder. Boyer hit a high fly which was dropped and Kennedy scored. With the bases full Mathieu drew four balls and Stugart walked home. Gay and Adams struck out.

The seventh inning netted three more runs for Ursinus. Johnson fouled out to first. Weller struck out. Kennedy hit and stole second. Mathieu reached first through the first baseman's error and Mitterling was safe on a fielder's choice. With the bases full, Boyer drove out a three bager, scoring Kennedy, Mathieu and Mitterling. Stugart fanned.

Villa Nova scored again in the eighth. Minich made first, stole second and took third on a wild pitch. He scored on the next play. Pendergast was hit by a pitched ball. O'Leary struck out. Cosgrove went out—short to first and Gilson's high fly was caught by Adams on second. Kelley displaced Minich in the box for Villa Nova, but he proved ineffective, four hits being made from his delivery in the one inning. Gay was made out at first. Adams fouled out. Four hits followed in succession by Johnson, Weller, Kennedy and Mathieu. On Mathieu's hit Johnson scored. Weller was caught at the home plate, thus ending the scoring. Boyer played a good game at short and Johnson featured with his hitting.

The box score:

QUARTET MAKES HIT AT SKIPPACK.

The college male quartet furnished music for the twenty-fifth annual commencement of the Skippack town ship schools, held at Skippack, Pa., on Saturday evening. Mr. Deinger accompanied the quartet and gave one of his popular readings during the exercises. A group of students under the chaperonage of Mrs. Webb also went along.

The singing by the quartet and the readings by Mr. Deinger were warmly applauded and encores were requested for every number.

1913 CATALOG OUT.

The Ursinus Catalog for 1912-13 is being distributed from the College office. We note the following important changes: Hereafter all new students who do not take their meals in their own homes will be required to board at the college dining hall. The expenses of a student have been raised from $100 to $110 a year.

Several of the entrance requirements have also been changed.

Robinson, '14, was called to his home at Erdington, N. J., on Monday, by the serious illness of his mother.

JUNIOR RECEPTION.

Glenwood Hall Scene of Brilliant Annual Class Function.

The Freshman reception to the Junior class, held in Glenwood Hall on Wednesday night, was in every way successful. The hall was elaborately decorated with pennants and flags; and the music, which was furnished by the college orchestra, added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Gristock, and Mr. and Mrs. Moser, who acted as chaperons, entered into the spirit of the occasion and helped make it the success that it was.

The reception began at about 8:30 with a short but interesting program. An overture by the orchestra was followed by the address of welcome, by Mr. Derr, the Freshman class President.

Miss Hyde then rendered a very pretty vocal solo, and responded to an encore. An address by Mr. Rumbaugh, President of the Junior class, concluded the regular program.

The Grand March which followed was spirited, and was very much enjoyed by all. After this, a number of old-fashioned games were played, including such favorites as "Tucker," "Bingo" and "Jolly Miller."

At about 11 o'clock the refreshments were served; and, needless to say, this proved to be one of the most popular features of the evening. After a lively Virginia reel and a final Grand March, the company departed for their respective domiciles.

The Freshmen are certainly to be congratulated on their success in entertaining such a large number of people, especially when it is remembered that dancing was positively prohibited.

CANTATA "ESTHER"

WELL RENDERED

A Large Audience Hears Students in Prominent Roles.

The cantata, "Esther," which was rendered on Thursday evening in Bomberger Hall, proved to be a treat. The choirs not only sang well but also displayed their ability at dramatic portrayal, entering fully into the spirit of the story. The chorus consisted of the choirs of the church at Lower Providence and that of the Reformed church in town. It was greeted by a large and appreciative audience. Mr. E. T. Robinson, as leader, deserves much of the credit for making it the success it was.

Preceding the cantata itself, Rev. Clapp spoke a few words in explanation, briefly sketching the book of Esther and the character of Ahasuerus, the Xerxes of history.

The soloists were: Esther, Miss Fisher, soprano; Ahasuerus, Mr. Yoh, bass; Haman Mr. Greene, baritone; Haman's wife, Miss Snyder, alto; Mordecai, Mr. Trucksees, tenor; Mordecai's sister, Miss Vandarslice, soprano; seribe, Mr. Wetzel, baritone; herald, Mr. Small, tenor; Miss Supplee accompanist.

The cantata opened with the chorus, "Long Live Haman." After a duet by Messrs Yoh and Greene, Miss Vandarslice sang. Her solo work deserves special commendation. With the next chorus a sadder note crept into the music, a lament for the fate in store for Israel. The duet by Mr. Trucksees and Miss Fisher was perhaps the most dramatic part in the whole cantata. Esther resolved to intercede for her people and asked for their prayers. The subdued tone of the music made all feel the anxiety of the people. The spirit of hope and trust, on the other hand, was voiced in a solo by Miss Vandarslice. The duet by Mr. Yoh and Miss Fisher, which followed, is to be commended, especially for the clear enunciation. Esther obtained her request and the movement quickened with a solo by Mr. Small. All was now triumph for Esther and her people. Miss Snyder then sang with much expression. In a duet by Mr. Yeh and Mr. Wetzel the king learned of Haman's plot.

Mr. Yoh was at his best in the solo which followed. Haman was here condemned to die. His position was given to Mordecai. The male quartet coming next was well harmonized. After the chorus, "Israel Triumphs, Her People Are Free," the farewell of Haman was sung by Miss Snyder and Mr. Greene. The quartet by Mr. Yoh, Miss Snyder, Miss Vandarslice and Mr. Trucksees was one of the most beautiful parts of the cantata. Then followed the final chorus, which was a fitting close to the cantata.

EDITORIAL

For a number of years a large percentage of our graduates have been entering the profession of teaching. Certain characteristics are essential for those who wish to succeed in this profession. Those of us who will probably make teaching our life work should keep this fact constantly in view during our college course. By taking advantage of all the opportunities that are offered for work in this field, we can secure a training which will do much to offset the lack of experience.

We often hear that teachers fail because of their inability to discipline. Certain success in the school-room is impossible without discipline. But if we seek further, in many instances we shall find that the cause of the poor discipline is either the lack of scholarship or the inability to impart to the pupils. In either case the pupils soon lose respect for the ability of the teacher and difficulties multiply.

The imparting of knowledge is largely a matter of natural ability; but any teacher will be greatly aided by the facts derived from Psychology, Logic and Education if these subjects are earnestly studied. Scholarship is the prime essential in teaching. The instructor must be a master of his subject. Pupils are remarkably keen and inquisitive, and repeated failures to answer their reasonable questions will cause them to think that their teacher is not prepared to teach his subject. Mediocre scholarship may be sufficient to beguile a faculty into granting a diploma, but it will not be sufficient to enable one to face alert pupils.

Too many graduates regard their preparation for their life's work as complete when they have secured a position. The living teacher is constantly studying. Even though he may be an honor man in scholarship, yet it is necessary that by constant study he keep in touch with all that will aid him in his presentation of the lesson.

We are proud of the record which our graduates have attained in this noble profession. Let us take advantage of all our excellent opportunities so that we may follow in their footsteps.

SOPHS. AND SENIORS HOLD PICNIC.

Departing from the time-honored but childish custom of endeavoring to break up the Freshman-Junior reception, on Wednesday evening, the Sophomores were the hosts of the Seniors at an indoor picnic, in the old music hall in North Wing.

Following a grand march, various games were played. The luncheon was served in baskets, the participants seating themselves on the lawn in picnic fashion. Before leaving all gathered around the piano and sang. Then the Seniors cheered for their hosts, and the Sophomores responded with cheers for their guests. Shortly after 11 o'clock all returned to their rooms agreeing that it was one of the most pleasant evenings spent this year.

Special praise is due Miss West, and Messrs. Singley and Vogel, chairmen of the entertainment, decorating and refreshment committees respectively, and their assistants, for making the picnic a success.

STUDENTS WILL PRESENT "A BOX OF MONKEYS."

A comedy entitled "A Box of Monkeys," will be given in Bomberger Hall on Tuesday evening. The cast is composed of Misses Ferree, '14, McCauslan, '16, and West, '15, and Messrs. Singley, '15, and Smith, '16. Considerable effort has been put on the play under the direction of Mr. J. Edward Lane, and it is hoped that a large audience will come out to see it. The college orchestra will furnish music and a violinist from Philadelphia will render several solos. The admission will be twenty-five cents.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting Tuesday evening was led by Miss Klein, who gave a very helpful talk on "True Friendship." She said, in brief:

True friendship is of two kinds—that which we bear toward our enemies, and that which we bear toward our real friends. David gives us an excellent example of friendship towards an enemy. Although Saul hated him and tried to kill him, David still loved him and even saved his life. Like David, we should not let dislikes interfere with friendships. If we look for good in people, we can always find something in them to love.

This is not the easiest friendship, nor yet the ideal friendship. The ideal friendship can exist only between true friends. Any one who has never had a friend whose good influence is felt continually, has missed one of the greatest things in life.

But we cannot find a nobler example of friendship than Christ's steadfast love for us, even when we sin and forget Him. Let us be true to Him, and being true to Him, we cannot but be true to those around us.

SOCIETY NOTES

Zwinglian

One of the most enjoyable miscellaneous programs this year was given in Zwinglian Society on Friday evening. It was well balanced, being at the same time entertaining and instructive. The numbers were:

Plano duet, Misses Ellis and Kern; essay, "The Final Call," Mr. Fink; Irish monologue, Mr. Thena; declamation, "Chivalry," Mr. Yost; reading from Lowell Mr. Godshall; conjectured story, Mr. Myers; discussion, "The Inevitable Trend of Socialistic Principles," Mr. Davidheiser; Junior chorus, Mr. Mertz, leader; oration, "The Value of a Home," Mr. Wetzel; Zwinglian Review, Miss Wagner.

Schaff.

The last of the inter-class debates was held between the Juniors and Freshmen in Schaff Society, Friday evening. The question debated was, "Resolved, that the U. S. should own and operate the railroads."

Messrs. Fisher, Ensminger and Small debated for the affirmative side and the Juniors in an able manner. The negative side was defended by the Freshman, Messrs. Yeatts, Gingrich and Light who won the decision of the judges.

Other numbers on the program were: Violin solo, Miss Moser; piano solo, Miss Partman; piano duet, Misses Schlichter and Boorem; Gazette by Mr. Hoover.

The society welcomed Mr. Johnson, of Spring City into membership.

Marlin Big Game
REPEATING RIFLES

The Special Smokeless Steel barrel, rifled deep on the Ballard system, creates perfect combustion, develops highest velocity and hurls the bullet with utmost accuracy and mightiest killing impact.

The mechanism is direct-acting, strong, simple and perfectly adjusted. It never clogs. The protecting wall of solid steel between your head and cartridge keeps rain, sleet, snow and all foreign matter from getting into the action. The side ejection throws shells away from line of sight and allows instant repeat shots always. New .33-caliber now ready. Built in perfect proportion throughout, in many high power calibres, it is a quick handling, powerful, accurate gun for all big game.

Every hunter should know all the Marlin characteristics. The Marlin Firearms Co. Send for our free catalog. Enclose 3 stamps for postage. 42 Willow Street New Haven, Conn.

If you shoot a rifle, pistol or shotgun, you should have a copy of the Ideal Hand Book—160 pages of useful information for shooters. It tells all about powders, bullets, primers and reloading tools for all standard rifle, pistol and shotgun ammunition; how to measure powders accurately; shows you how to cut your ammunition expense in half and do more and better shooting. This book is free to any shooter who will send three stamps postage to The Marlin Firearms Co., 42 Willow St., New Haven, Conn.
