ENGLISH HISTORICAL GROUP ORGANIZE

The youngest group of the college began its career last Wednesday evening, when it met to organize at the home of the group adviser, Prof. Smith. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President, Miss Heebner; Vice-President, Miss Hallman; Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Fisher. When the business part of the meeting was completed, Prof. Smith read a paper on the interesting customs and myths of the Hawaiians and played some of the most popular music of these people. The remaining part of the evening was given up to music and games, after which the most appetizing delicacies were served by Mrs. Smith. All the members expressed themselves as having spent a most enjoyable evening.

RECITAL

The opening recital of the year was held in the auditorium of Bomberger Hall on Thursday night, when the Faculty of the School of Music rendered a very pleasing program. The recital consisted entirely of voice and piano selections and the manner in which they were executed reflects great credit upon the performers. Mr. Harry A. Sykes, who has recently been appointed instructor of the piano at Ursinus, executed his several numbers in a masterly manner, while Mr. John Myron Jolls, tenor, was never heard to better advantage. The attendance was rather small and those who failed to attend the recital missed a rare musical treat.

The Librarian of the college, Rev. Calvin D. Yost, was called to McKeansburg, Pa., to attend the funeral of his mother, who died at the advanced age of eighty-one years.

URSINUS DEFEATS F. & M. Score, 20==0

Varsity Meets Worthy Foe in Old Rival, but Superior Knowledge of New Game Brings Victory to Red, Old Gold and Black

After a long wait of seven years the Ursinus football team at last revenged themselves for the crushing defeat which Franklin and Marshall administered to our team in 1903. The year before, in 1902, defenders of the red, old gold and black had trounced their blue and white rivals by the small score of 6-5. Great was the joy at Ursinus that year, for never before in the history of football relations between the two institutions had Ursinus trailed the blue and white of the Lancaster collegians in the dust. On that famous team of 1902 were such worthy men as our own Coach Price, Ziegler, afterwards an All-American Guard, Hobson, Haines, Rapp, Roth and others who were equally worthy men. In that team Franklin and Marshall indeed met a foe which was its superior. But for this defeat F. and M. meant to get their sweet revenge. And get it they did in the following year. After a hard fought struggle the Lancasterians came off the victors by a large margin. After that year, through some disagreement, athletic relations between the two institutions were severed until last spring when the baseball teams met and Ursinus came off the victor. Ever since last spring all eyes were turned toward the football game this fall. We might say that had Ursinus been defeated in this game the football season could not have been declared a success even though we were victorious over Pennsylvania and were to win all the remaining games on our schedule.

The Ursinus rooters and team were conveyed to Lancaster on a special train which left the Collegeville station at 9.00 a. m. bringing them to their destination at just about the noon hour. At the station were a number of F. and M. students who carried the team's suit-cases to the gymnasium. Right here it may be said that the treatment received by the Ursinus team and its followers was of the finest kind. Although the rivalry which exists between the two Colleges is of the most intense calibre, yet the Franklin and Marshall students throughout acted in a gentlemanly manner. The Ursinus rooters marched to Williamson field in a body, headed by a band furnished by Franklin and Marshall.

The day was not an ideal football day. It was far too warm for football weather and its effects could be readily seen on both of the teams. The field was also in a rather dusty condition owing to the lack of rain during the last month. If the day was not of the best for the contesting teams, it was an ideal one for the spectators. The crowd was large and all came to see a fight to the finish. Everyone knew the feeling of rivalry which existed between the two teams and knew that the loser was not going to give up without a game fight.

Both teams appeared on the field shortly before 3 o'clock. It was at once seen that Ursinus somewhat outweighed their opponents. Ursinus won the toss and chose to defend the south goal, receiving the kickoff.

Promptly at three o'clock Bridenbaugh kicked off to West. Neither team was able to score in this period, Ursinus several times losing the ball by fumbles at bad times. Near the close of the first quarter G. Hartman recovered the ball on an on-side kick and carried it across the goal-line. However the left side of Franklin and Marshall's line was off-side and the ball was brought back. The period ended with the ball in the possession of F. and M. near mid-field. Soon after the opening of the second quarter F. and M. kicked to Ursinus. Our team then settled down to work and soon carried the ball across the line for a touchdown after a series of end runs and line bucks. Gay kicked the goal. Soon after this Gay booted a place kick squarely over the goal posts but it was not allowed because the umpire detected the Ursinus tackles and guards locking legs. Quarterback West now tried a forward pass which was fumbled, F. and M. recovering the ball. On the next play Bridenbaugh attempted to kick but Pontius made a poor pass and the F. and M. quarterback was tackled behind the goal line for a safety. This ended the scoring in this half, which ended shortly after. Score 8-0.

Again in the third period, after a series of forward passes and line bucks, K. Thompson carried the ball across the line for the second touchdown. Gay kicked the goal. Neither side was able to score again in this period. Ursinus scored their third touchdown in the last period, Isenberg again taking the ball across the line, Gay kicking the goal. Again in this period Ursinus had the ball on F. and M's. three-yard line with first down. However, holding was detected on the Ursinus line and the ball was taken back fifteen yards. F. and M. got possession of it on the next play after a fumble. The game ended with the ball in our possession in F. and M's. territory.

The game throughout was thrilling. Fumbling at many times marred it greatly, however. Ursinus was the greatest offender at this. Both sides were penalized frequently during the game. It would be hard to pick individual stars on the Ursinus team. All played a hard game. Isenberg was a reliable ground gainer as were also K. Thompson and Gay. For F. and M. Jaeger and Saylor played hard and consistent. Although both sides were equally anxious to win the game and it was fiercely contested, yet it was characterized by the lack of dirty playing on both sides.

The line up:

NOTICE

During the past few days the attention of the business manager of the "Weekly" was called to the fact that a few of the subscribers have not received every issue of the "Weekly." If there are any others who did not receive a copy of every issue, the missing number or numbers will be forwarded if the business manager is notified.

There may also be a few who are receiving the paper each week but who have not been canvassed for the subscription. Among this number there may be some one who does not desire it. If such is the case we hope you will communicate with the business manager at your earliest convenience.

On our list of regular subscribers there are many who, we feel sure, are willing to pay their subscription in advance. A number have already done so and if more will follow this example it will be appreciated by the management.

SOCIETY NOTES

ZWINGLIAN

Three new men, Brubaker of Lebanon, Peters of Slatington and Mertz of Durham, Pa., were elected and initiated into the membership of the organization at the last meeting.

The audience was the largest of the year and was fully rewarded for its presence by the rendition of a good, miscellaneous program.

A sketch entitled, "A Case of Suspension," proved to be the best and most enjoyable feature of the entire evening, the appropriate stage settings adding in no little degree to the success of the act. Misses Latshaw, Rapp, Beach, Hain and Fisher and Messrs. Quay, Geroges, Bunting, Keener and Behney were the participants, who showed their histrionic ability to effect. We want more of this kind of number in the future.

The other features follow: Vocal solo, Bransome; Piano solo, Miss Fisher; Parliamentary Drill, led by Strack and Herson; Essay, Miss Hain; Octette, Quay and Zwing Boys; Mock Political Speech, Yoh; Reading, Behney; Declamation, Yingst; Piano solo, Fegley; Oration, Langner; and Review, Kantner.

An announcement was made of the Hallowe'en entertainment to occur on Friday evening, Oct. 28, to which we invite all our friends.

SCHAFF

The subject, Resolved, That a Bachelor of Science degree should not be granted by a Liberal Arts college, was debated in Schaff.

The affirmative side, which was upheld by Mr. Herber as chief and Shellhamer and Singley as chosen speakers, brought forth the following arguments in favor of their side of the question.

1. It is beyond the jurisdiction of a Liberal Arts College to grant a B. S. degree.
2. The degree is of little value when granted by such a college.
3. It lowers the scholarship of the students.

Heinly, B. Jacobs and Maurer on the negative side argued that:

1. The B. S. course is a culture course.
2. By giving the B. S. degree we have larger schools and the benefits of better facilities and instructors.
3. There is no demand for a change. The judge decided in favor of the negative side.

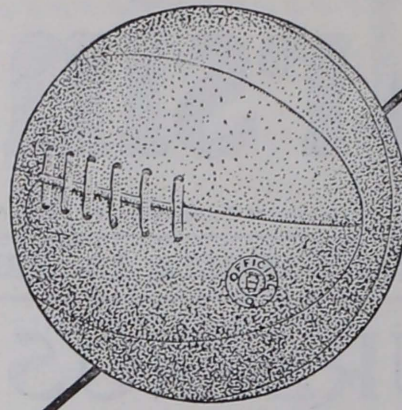

The program also included several well rendered musical numbers: Piano solo, Miss Scheuren; Vocal solo, Mr. Wismer; Instrumental duet, Thomasson and Kichline.

Under voluntary exercises the society was favored with a recitation by Mr. Kell and an instrumental duet by Matz and Lauer.

The society is pleased to welcome as an active member Mr. Whitney Hartman of Reading.

Y. M. C. A. CABINET MEETS

On Monday evening the members of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet held a meeting in the room of Herson and Glatfelter. The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the work for the ensuing year. The chairmen of the different committees reported their plans, after which there was a general discussion on matters relating to the welfare of the Association.

Made in eight sections of the first selection of special imported leather.

The President made an address in which he thanked the members of his cabinet for their loyal support, and said that he was very well pleased with the success of the different committees. After the business had been transacted refreshments were served. All went home feeling that the evening was spent in a pleasant and profitable manner.

Y. M. C. A.

Increasing interest is being taken in the weekly meetings of the association as was shown by the splendid turnout Wednesday when Melvin Jacobs, taking charge of the meeting spoke on "The Worth of Man." His talk follows in part:

"Man has one thing in common with brutes, an animal body, but he was created in the image of God. The beast is born with his faculties practically developed while man has to learn. He has liberty to go up or down while the beast is neither good nor bad.

In order that man may improve in character he must have an ideal before him. Man gets no higher than his ideal. In order that our characters may stand for something we must choose an infinite ideal. Christ only can meet our need.

While striving upward we must stand up as light-houses to warn others of the rocks that threaten destruction. It is in this that our true worth will be seen. As the lamps must be filled and the wicks trimmed daily so we must carefully reinforce our purpose daily by studying our ideal.

Thus to prove our true worth as men we must ever watch lest some stray ship be cast upon the rocks through our neglect."

At a business meeting the following men were elected members of the association: Heller, Ringleben, Brubaker, Kell, Peters, Detwiler, Wiedhorn, Mertz, Elicker and Hess.

Y. W. C. A.

The regular weekly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held at the usual time on Tuesday evening. It was a Decision meeting and was in charge of Mrs. Cordo. She gave a splendid talk on full consecration to Christ and the value of self-denial. After the talk, the girls were given a few moments in which to decide whether they would join the association or not. The result was that the association received into active membership the following girls: Marie J. Furman, Ellen T. Hallman, Gratia C. Furman, Edna M. Wagner, Esther E. Klein, Myra Sabold, Anna Kemmerer, Esther Peters, Miriam Barnet. The association was also glad to welcome as an honorary member, Mrs. Cordo.

DR. GOOD ADDRESSES BROTHERHOOD OF ST. PAUL

The first meeting for this year of the Brotherhood of St. Paul was held Monday evening. Dr. Jas. I. Good, one of the founders of this organization which is made up of those men who expect to enter the Christian ministry or are interested in the work, delivered a splendid address to those present on "The Call of the Ministry upon the Heroic Element in Man." He showed how science, business and the world in general was never wanting in heroic men to take up the most dangerous tasks for the sake of mankind. The church too has had her heroes and does have them to-day. She is calling more strongly to-day than ever. The ministry is no profession for sluggards neither is it lacking in rewards for faithfulness. Dr. Good said a great deal more on this subject all bearing on the general point that the ministry is a noble calling and that it presents a grand field for noble workers.

Prof. Kline also addressed the Brotherhood urging all who are thinking of the ministry as a calling to decide definitely at once and then direct all their energy along that line of work. Valuable time is lost by indecision. He who aims at nothing generally hits nothing.

The following men were elected members: Ringleben, Gebhard, Chas. A. Fisher, Heller, Kell, Rumbaugh, Hess, Mertz, Maurer, Brubaker and Peters.

BONFIRE

The special train arrived at Collegeville about ten o'clock Saturday night. The players were welcomed by a large crowd of students and townspeople. The students who had stayed at home had built a large pile of wood for a bonfire. The crowd immediately formed in line and marched to the fieldhouse where the match was applied to the pile of wood. Speeches were made by the prominent men of the town and school. After many college yells and songs and much ringing of the college bell the tired crowd retired to their respective rooms.
