ZWINGLIAN ANNIVERSARY

On Friday evening, March 18, 1910 the Zwinglian Literary Society celebrated the Fortieth Anniversary of its organization.

The program rendered is deserving of the highest praise as it was not only entertaining and instructive, but distinctly "classy." Its length was admirably suited to its style, casting much credit upon the committee in charge. While all the performers did well, the applause showed the piano duet, the violin-cello duet and the oration to be the numbers most appreciated.

The program was rendered as follows:

Invocation Dean W. A. Kline
Piano Duet, "Wilhelm Tell" Misses Hain and Fisher, '13
Dramatic Interpretation, "Hugo" C. A. Behney, '12 and A. G. Maeder, '10
Vocal Solo, "The Bugler" E. E. Quay, '11
Declamation, "The Soul of the Violin," Miss Florence Place, '10
Violin-Cello Duet, "The Magic Flute" Messrs. Horten, '13, and Wagner, '10
Oration, "Bad Citizenship of Good Men" H. G. Maeder, '10

When the program had been completed the committee in charge received the society's guests in the library and the performers received the congratulations of the multitude in procession assembled. The guests were then served with delicious refreshments consisting of nut salad, ice cream, cake and coffee which were enjoyed by all.

The History and English rooms were neatly arranged as dining rooms and decorated with college and society pennants and colors. The library with its mellow light and cozy corners was enjoyed by many.

At a meeting of the Athletic Committee held last week, a vote of thanks was extended to Douthett, West, Kerr and Robert Thompson for erecting the back stop on the baseball field.

MUSICAL CLUB'S TRIP

On Sunday afternoon the Glee Club and Orchestra will leave for a week's trip to New York, Brooklyn and points in New Jersey. The full quota of twenty-eight men will be taken along and will be entertained for the week at the homes of members of the West End Presbyterian church, of which President Keigwin is the pastor, and where the musical organizations will make their initial appearance in New York. The boys have been practicing faithfully during the past week and with the success of the Lebanon concert to build on are looking forward to a successful campaign.

It had been previously decided that the Glee Club should compete in the musical contest that is now in progress at Wanamakers, Philadelphia, but, owing to the large amount of practice required in the preparation of the numbers, and the short time the club has at its command, it was decided to withdraw from the contest and devote the time at hand to the preparation of the music that will be used during the coming week.

A splendid itinerary has been arranged and a good time is assured to all. The clubs will leave Sunday afternoon and will arrive in New York that evening. On Sunday night the Glee Club will sing at the services in the West End Presbyterian church, at which time Dr. Keigwin will preach. On Monday night a concert will be given in the same church. No concert has been arranged for Tuesday night but instead the clubs will be entertained at a theatre party. On Wednesday a trip will be made to Morristown, N. J., where a concert will be given that night. Thursday the clubs return to New York and will give a concert at Dr. Carson's church in Brooklyn. For Friday night a concert has been arranged at Dr. Farrar's church, also in Brooklyn.

The concert on Friday night will end the musical part of the trip, but on the return Saturday the clubs will stop at Princeton, N. J., where they will witness the Ursinus-Princeton game which is played at that place in the afternoon and by their presence the boys expect to cheer the team on to a victory.

LEBANON CONCERT

On Tuesday, March 15 the members of the Male Glee Club and the College Orchestra invaded the land of Behney, Faust and Strack for the triple purpose of being inflicted with a "posing" ordeal by a Lebanon photographer, of inflicting upon the innocent populace a series of discordant howls and sawings and of inflicting upon themselves their first "square" meal since the Christmas vacation.

The concert was given in the P. O. S. of A. Hall, under the auspices of the Ushers League of St. Marks Reformed church, of which our well known alumnus and director Dr. I. C. Fisher is pastor. The large hall was well filled with an appreciative audience and the boys, under the direction of Prof. Jolls, executed a very long program with a dash and vim heretofore unknown in their organizations. In nearly all Glee numbers the words had been well memorized and were pronounced distinctly and the voices blended beautifully. The Orchestra carried out their part of the program in a most creditable and pleasing manner.

On account of the extreme length of the program no encores were given, which fact made it hard to select the given numbers most popular with the audience, but from the applause given and the comments made upon the Violin Solo by Mr. Horten, "Deep in a Rose's Glowing Heart" by Messrs. Jolls, Horten, Wagner and Thomas, the Baritone Solo by Mr. Laucks, the Violin-Cello Duet by Messrs. Horten and Wagner, "Two Roses" by the Glee Club, the Declamation, "The Man Who Apologized" by Mr. Spears, "Floating on a Marcel Wave," by Foggy and Co., and "All Kinds of Women" by the Male Quartette, they can justly be termed the star numbers.

On the whole, the program was exceedingly well rendered and reflects credit upon the College in general and Prof. Jolls in particular. Ursinus can justly claim a victory over Gettysburg because of the difference in the receptions rendered the respective clubs. The boys were most royally entertained in the homes of members of St. Mark's church and hold many pleasant memories of the treatment accorded them in Lebanon.

FIELD HOUSE FUND AND THE MINSTREL SHOW

At the present writing there is a large debt hanging over the Field House. Owing to unexpected bills which were presented, a larger deficit remains than even the least optimistic father of the project ever anticipated. To help liquidate the debt the Minstrel is intended. The writer of this article is very well aware of the heavy demands that are made on the students in the way of organizations and side shows, but he believes that there is always time to be spent in an extra worthy object, even though it may be that a sacrifice be made of some other organization for the time being.

This Minstrel Show is expected to equal and eclipse the last minstrel given for the same fund, but it will not even approach it if more interest and enthusiasm is not displayed. This article does not discuss Ursinus organizations, but it is well known that there are so many that a continued attention to something squeezed in is rather a problem. To those who promote these organizations, and those who are actually interested, the appeal goes out to give way for a few weeks in order that we may help clear the debt on the finest Field House in the state, and one of the finest in the country. Ursinus will be well proud of this in future years, this, the students handiwork, and to that end let us try and erase the debt ourselves and quickly. The Minstrel is only an incident to that end, but it is expected to be a largely remunerative incident and we need it. This article is in no way antagonistic to any one, it is simply a hope that enthusiasm for this cause will bound forward with leaps.

It has been previously announced that the Minstrel Show would take place April 7th. In order to have more time to prepare for the performance, it has been decided to postpone it until a later date which will be announced in the near future.

EDITORIAL

Although the last issue of "The Weekly" was due entirely to the efforts of the present Editorial Staff, yet with this week's issue the new staff officially takes charge, and in view of this fact we wish to state our position and the policy which we will pursue in the future.

In the first place we want it thoroughly understood that we are not here to knock at all times and at everything, nor will we attempt to run the paper at variance with the wishes of the Board of Control. Yet we hold that "The Weekly" is primarily a student organ, published for the purpose of narrating the events of the College which are of interest to the student-body, the alumni and friends of the institution and for the voicing of student sentiment. We shall endeavor to be fair-minded to all and at all times take an unbiased point of view of the many complications that arise in the course of our college life, always having in mind the good of the institution which we serve.

We realize that in the student-body of every institution of learning there is an element of the satisfied and the dissatisfied. In the former class we find the student who is content to drift along with the tide of the natural course of events, and accept the existing conditions as the inevitable and final decree of fate. In the latter class we have the student who is at all times taking exception to and criticizing any movement on foot or action of the authorities, and who is known in common parlance as a "chronic knocker." The student who finds himself at either of these extremes is not the one who will get the most out of his course and at the same time benefit his college and be a credit to the same. What we need here at Ursinus to-day is men and women who will take an interest in the vital affairs of the College, who will look the existing conditions squarely in the face, who will deliberate wisely and be guided by their better thoughts in their calmer moments and not rush into a movement or condemn an action rashly.

Every student has a right to be heard in matters that concern the College. Each one should consider it his or her duty to take an active part in any movement that would affect the student-body. And so "The Weekly" invites the opinion of the students on anything that may be published in these columns in the future. We repeat that we shall endeavor to be fair-minded to all, although at all times we shall be guided by the opinions of the better thinking students and shall always reserve the right to express our personal opinion.

Petty grievances that concern only the faculty and the student-body will be eliminated. Instead of hurling things broad-cast to "yellow journal reporters," we think that we should confer in committee with the authorities in charge and settle the dispute in our own family. Trouble can never be quelled through a process of fault-finding. The public is prone to measure an institution by its faults. The graduate wants to call to memory the pleasantries of his Alma Mater and desires not to be annoyed by the unpleasant things that concern the student-body alone. Matters that we feel the alumni and friends should know we will publish, so that they might understand the true condition of affairs and, knowing them, they should extend their sympathy and cooperation to us in our efforts to better the existing conditions.

Such, in brief, is our opinion of how a college weekly should be edited. We make no prophecies, but will bend our efforts to the carrying out of the purposes herein expressed.

The Reach Ball

The marvelous pitching records made by present-day slab artists are due in great part to the Reach Base Ball. It is only with a ball as perfect as the Reach that consistent control of intricate curves is possible. The Reach Ball is the only authorized ball of the Great American League, and was the official ball of the World's Series. It is the ball used by the big college teams in championship games—none but the best is good enough, and Reach Base Balls are conceded best by all.

fest, and as is the case in all games in the beginning of the season it served its purpose by showing what the team can do.

The score cannot be used as a basis for passing judgment as there are various reasons for Georgetown's numerous trips to the home plate. A short rightfield with a steep bank giving the batter a home run was responsible for three. The long tiresome trip seemed to affect the team and at times they played a listless game. However, after the first two innings the game was nicely played.

Star, the first batter of the season walked, West and Horten sacrificed him to third, and he scored on Pownall's hit. Georgetown in its half of the inning likewise scored a run on two errors and a hit. Ursinus was shut out in the second while Georgetown scored five runs on two home runs a base on balls and an error. Until the fifth nothing of merit occurred, when Horten retired the side by striking out the only three men who faced him. In the seventh Georgetown scored its last run on a hit and an error, while Ursinus scored in the ninth on two hits.

Y. M. C. A.

With the regular weekly meeting held Wednesday evening the term of the old officers of the Association expired and that of the new ones began. The retiring president, Yost, gave a very encouraging report which follows in part: "It is with a deep sense of gratitude to Almighty God for his direction and guidance in the work that I humbly submit my report for the year that has just passed. The work of the year shows that the Y. M. C. A. at Ursinus is coming into its proper place, is meaning something to the student-body. The year has been a success, and variety and a desire to meet the need of the students has been the Key to it. The officers and committeemen have been doing their duty.

The present membership is forty-seven. Bible Classes were carried on part of the year and a Mission Study Class has been organized. The neighborhood Committee has held services regularly at the Montgomery County Almshouse and a number of the men are active in the Sunday Schools of the vicinity. A number of prominent speakers were secured at stated intervals. The highest monthly average of attendance was 51.75 while the lowest was 22. Delegates were sent to the Presidents' Conference at Lancaster and to Northfield. The expenses for the year amounted to $47.77 while the receipts netted practically the same. In short the association has been prospering along all lines."

Champ Clark says: "I read 'Reuben: His Book' with intense delight. I haven't laughed so much since I first read Mark Twain. There is nearly as much philosophy as humor in it. The book ought to make 'Reuben' fame and fortune."

W. J. Bryan writes: "I am glad that 'Reuben' is going to be put in a form where it can be obtained by the general public. It deserves a wide circulation. Its wise philosophy is presented in a style that engages the attention and fixes it in the memory."
