THE RECITAL

A very pleasing recital was rendered on Thursday afternoon at 4.15 by the students of the School of music. Pupils of both Miss Riddle and Prof. Jolls took part in the program, and the work showed the results of efficient teaching and hard practice. The program consisted of instrumental solos, duets and quartettes, vocal solos and quartettes, and each performer, with but few exceptions, did credit to himself. Though the audience was small, enthusiasm and appreciation were very evident, and showed that the taste of the community is being cultivated to things of the aesthetic nature. The instructors in this department of the college are to be congratulated on their work of the year.

HISTORICAL-POLITICAL GROUP

The Historical-Political Group met on Thursday evening to settle up the business of the year, and to elect officers for the coming year.

The following officers were elected and installed: President, Douthett, '12; Vice-President, Miss Brooks, '12; Secretary, Robbins, '12; Treasurer, Reinhold, '13.

It was decided to hold a meeting in the History Room at 2.00 p. m., Wednesday, June 8, at which the Hon. Wm. S. Bennet of New York will give an informal talk on "Practical Politics." All alumni and friends of the Group are cordially invited to be present.

Ursinus Downs Old Rival

Franklin and Marshall Defeated in First Game Since 1903

Last Friday the baseball team played and defeated our old rivals F. and M. by score of 10-4. It was the first time the two teams had met since the year 1903. In that year athletic relationships were split and not until this year was it possible to arrange for any teams from the two colleges to compete with each other. In former days F. and M. was the greatest rival on Ursinus' schedule and those games were looked forward to each season. We hope that the F. and M. game may again become permanent upon our schedule.

The game on Friday was rather loosely played. It was characterized by much hitting on both sides with Ursinus in the lead. The game by innings follows:

1ST INNING. Brenner out, Horton to Gay. Hershey got a hit, stole second but was thrown out at second Horton to West. Pontius struck out. Starr hit but was thrown out at second on West's attempted sacrifice. West got to first and took third on Horton's hit, caught at home on Pownall's bunt. Pownall out for not running. Score 0-0.

2ND INNING. Kemp struck out. Rhodes hit a long fly to Palmer and Roberts struck out.

Kemp caught Palmer's fly. Kichline hit to left field but was caught trying to steal second. Isenberg struck out. Score 0-0.

3RD INNING. Gayley safe at first on Thompson's error. Bridenbaugh sacrificed Gayley to second. Watt hit to Horton who threw Gayley out at third. Kemp caught Thompson's fly. Gay struck out. Starr bunted safe. West flied out to Bridenbaugh. Score 0-0.

4TH INNING. Hershey made an infield hit and took third on Pownall's bad throw to Gay. Pontius flied out to Palmer. Hershey scored on Kemp's hit. Kemp and Rhodes out on Double play, Horton to Isenberg to Gay.

Horton made a two-bagger to left field. Pownall out at first, Gayley to Rhodes. Palmer hit a three base-hit, Horton scoring. Kichline hit to left field, Palmer scoring. Isenberg hit to centre field. Thompson hit by pitched ball, Isenberg taking second. Gay struck out. Score F. and M. 1. U. 2.

West hit just over second and scored on Horton's bunt, Horton taking third on errors by Pontius and Brenner, and scored on Pownall's infield hit. Pownall scored on Palmer's bunt, Palmer taking third on bad throw and scored on Brenner's error. Kichline struck out. Isenberg got to second on Watt's error of a fly ball. Thompson struck out. EDITORIAL

The members of the class of nineteen hundred and ten have passed their last examinations, and are now numbered among the alumni. Throughout their college course they occupied a prominent place in the various phases of life at Ursinus. In the class room, in the social and religious affairs, and on the athletic field, Nineteen Hundred and Ten was always in evidence, and in many instances their places will be hard to fill. Their future career will be closely watched by the many friends they made at Ursinus.

Examinations are over and the "knocker" will now make his semi-annual bow to the college public. He always makes it his business to inquire carefully about the grades of other students and then to minutely compare them with his own. If his record is not as good as some other student he immediately decides that it is the fault of the professor: he has not been given what he deserves. He is unable to conceal his jealousy of the other student, but "knocks" at teachers and pupils alike.

Every college is inflicted with men of this sort, but Ursinus seems to have more than her share. We who have been here for several years do not mind it, but to some of the new students the fact is very noticeable, and it certainly is not a good sign of the true college spirit which ought to exist at a college. We do not believe for one moment that a professor would willingly be unfair. If you would stop and think for a moment, you might come to the conclusion that when you were putting up such an excellent bluff, he was not so stupid after all. The professor has the records of your class work, and is better able to judge of your standing than any one else.

It would be a relief and a blessing to the studentbody, if the "knocker" would forget to make his appearance this time. Marks do not count for much at any rate. When you get out of college the world will not ask you to show your marks but what you can do. It is not the marks but the true qualities of a man, which determine his success in life.

SOCIETY NOTES

ZWINGLIAN

Zwinglian gave her annual Senior program last week. The Seniors lived up to what was expected of them and gave an excellent program. Dunseath declaimed Riley's "Raggety Man"; Mertz, read "An Essay on Essay Writing"; Miss Sponsler read a timely poem entitled "The Comet"; Maeder recited in german dialect, "Mark Anthony's Original Oration"; Moser produced an interesting History of the Zwing Seniors; and Yost gave his oration "Calvin and Calvinism." The musical numbers were all well given and added tone to the program. The Senior Quartet, composed of R. S. Thomas, Tenor; Miss Sponsler, Soprano; Miss Fermier, Contralto, and Wagner, Bass, rendered "No Shadows Yonder," from the Holy City by Gaul. Miss Fermier sang "When the Roses" by Reichardt and Wagner gave a Cello Solo entitled "Romance Sans Parvles" by D. Von-Goens.

Douthett, '12, read the Review.

At the completion of the program two bills were enacted into laws and the Treasurer reported $130 in the Treasury.

The following officers for the coming term were elected:

President, Quay, '11; Vice-President, Geroges, '11; Recording Secretary, Behney, '12; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Austerberry, '11; Attorney, Keener, '11; Treasurer, Douthett, '12; Chaplain, Herson, '12; Musical Director, Miss Hain, '13; Editor No. 1, Long, '13; Editor No. 2, Miss Latshaw, '11; Critic, Godshall, '11; Janitor, Lockart, '13; Senior Director, Godshall, '11; Freshman Director, Yeager, A; Library Representative, Douthett, '12.

SCHAFF

A very interesting miscellaneous program was rendered at Schaff. Music, "Dreaming," Schaff Orchestra; Essay, "Elizabeth Barret Browning," M. Jacobs;

The Reach Ball

The marvelous pitching records made by present-day slab artists are due in great part to the Reach Base Ball. It is only with a ball as perfect as the Reach that consistent control of intricate curves is possible. The Reach Ball is the only authorized ball of the Great American League, and was the official ball of the World's Series. It is the ball used by the big college teams in championship games—none but the best is good enough, and Reach Base Balls are conceded best by all.

Y. W. C. A.

The nature of the Y. W. C. A. meeting was a song service. Miss Latshaw took charge of the meeting. There being no subject assigned for discussion, the leader read a little article by Margaret E. Sangster, entitled "White Violets." The substance of the selection was as follows;

"Nothing gives me the exquisite joy that filled my cup to overflowing when, on a February morning, I found clusters of white violets lifting their pure faces to the sun and filling the air with their delicate sweetness. No flower has ever seemed so symbolic of girlhood at its best as the modest violet shyly smiling from its surrounding leaves, and revealing itself only to those who love it. The girl is to me the white violet, winsome, delicate and strong. Though winds of adverse fortune blow over her they do not lay her low and in the sunshine of love and warmth of home she grows day by day into rarer loveliness.

"This dream of fair young womanhood is never ideally perfect unless in the dew of the morning a girl has at once found herself and found her Savior. She may come into contact with sin, but if her motto is 'Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it' she will come out victorious and wear the white robes that are unspotted from the world."

A short business meeting was held after the conclusion of the regular meeting.

Y. M. C. A.

The meeting Wednesday evening was devoted to the farewell message of the seniors. As such meetings generally are, it was characterized by a touch of sadness together with wise counsel to those who are so fortunate as to have more time to spend in College.

As several good talks were given it would be impossible to report them all. A brief outline of the thoughts brought out will be given. Everyone expressed an appreciation of the good received from attending the meetings and showed that the Y. M. C. A. fills a place in one's college life that cannot be dispensed with. One's education is not the spiritual side, we need to get together and receive the spiritual outpouring that God gives to those who worship Him in truth. In view of the criticisms that have been made against the Association and its work, some remarks were made concerning the lines along which improvement ought to be made. Some say the Y. M. C. A. ought to be disbanded. They say the men in it as a rule do not live up to the ideals they profess and that they are no better than the other fellows. Not enough personal work is done and too little interest is taken in advancing the moral standard of the institution. If an organization is to live it must meet the needs for which it exists. We must bring ourselves to a higher plane of living and then reach out the hand of brotherhood to the fellow who is down.

A remark that fittingly closed the meeting was that though we must soon part, probably never to see each other again, we should remember that we are all striving for one great end and thus we are always fellow students and co-workers.
