FOOTBALL

For the second year in succession Haverford defeated Ursinus by the score of 12-0. The score hardly shows the relative strength of the two teams; both being equally strong on offense and weak on defense. Luck played a prominent part in the game, giving Haverford the ball on Ursinus fifteen yard line at the very beginning of the game. But Haverford won the game because her team played better football than the team which represented Ursinus, and she was quick to take advantage of her opponents' blunders. The game was very hard-fought but cleanly played, as the games between the two colleges always are.

Ursinus won the toss and chose to defend the north goal with a strong wind at her back. Haverford kicked off to Hain on the goal line, who ran it back fifteen yards. After two ineffectual attempts to gain, Faringer dropped back to punt. The pass was poor and was fumbled. Faringer recovered the ball and attempted to run it back, but he was downed, and it was Haverford's ball on Ursinus' fifteen yard line. Ursinus seemed demoralized, and Haverford on the first attempt made five yards. Jones added three more and Smiley made the first down. Two more plays and the ball was over; Jones making the touchdown. The goal was kicked. Score, Ursinus, 0. Haverford, 6.

Faringer kicked off to Bard, who ran the ball back to the twenty yard line. Here the Ursinus line held and Haverford was forced to kick. The punt was a fine attempt carrying to the Ursinus thirty-five yard line. Here Ursinus gave a good exhibition of her offensive power. Heller made ten yards around tackle, Hain on a double pass circled Brown for twenty, Faringer and Ziegler both gained five yards through the line. With Heller, Faringer and Ziegler carrying the ball, Ursinus advanced to Haverford's five yard line, where the ball was lost on downs by only a few inches. After trying a fake kick, Haverford, by tackle plunges and cross bucks, carried the ball steadily down the field. The ball was on the twenty-five yard line, when time was up for the first half.

Roth replaced Ziegler at full-back, but otherwise the two teams made no changes. Ursinus kicked off and Haverford again showed great offensive power, Ursinus having been powerless to stop her fierce rushes. Haverford's line seemed to get the charge on her opponents, and the backs were quick to take advantage of the openings. After consistent ground gaining, Smiley took the ball over the line for the second touchdown. Again the goal was kicked. Score Ursinus, 0. Haverford, 12.

Captain Faringer chose to receive the kick, and Ursinus seemed to regain her natural ability. Roth and Faringer hurdled for good gains. Heller was always good for a nice gain around tackle, and Hain made twenty on another double pass. But just when it seemed as if Ursinus would score, Faringer fumbled on Haverford's twenty-five yard line, and the chance was lost. Haverford rushed the ball to midfield before time was called. Shortly before the game was over, Keasey replaced Quay at guard.

The game showed up many weaknesses, but these can be remedied. The absence of Snyder and Abel was severely felt, although for men new to their positions, Alspach and Kerschner played an excellent game. The cheering and singing was not up to the standard. One thing is certain, it is impossible to have good cheering and singing with only one practice before a game. The cheer leaders did their part but there was neither volume nor unity in the cheers. The Dickinson game is only one week from tomorrow, and it is about time that we get together.

STRING QUARTET RECITAL

The opening musical event of the year will be the recital by the Schubert String Quartet, of Boston, in Bomberger Hall, next Wednesday evening, November first, at eight o'clock. String quartet music has rarely been heard in Collegeville, and the program of pure chamber music will be the first of its kind ever offered at Ursinus. In the Haydn and Mendelssohn quartets there will be opportunity to hear the smooth ensemble for which the Schuberts are noted. In addition to the concerted numbers there will be a violin solo, Bach's Ariã for the G string, and a violincello solo, Lento, by Chopin.

The Schubert Quartet aim to develop a taste for the best musical art in presenting to college students this superior form of composition—string quartet music. Ursinus is most fortunate in being included in the fall collegiate tour. The students are urged to show their appreciation by attending the recital. Tickets may be procured at the college office.

"LOOKING FOR A MAN"

The lecture, "Looking for a Man," delivered in Bomberger Hall on Thursday evening by Rev. Ross Frederick Wicks, Dayton, Ohio, was well attended, especially by the townspeople, to whom Mr. Wicks was well known, having been a student at Ursinus ten or twelve years ago. After relating a few incidents in his life at Ursinus, Mr. Wicks began his lecture. He said in part: This is a golden age, an age of opportunities. I am not a pessimist, I believe that every man has his place in the world. I believe in that eternal "must." Each man must decide on his life work and then push it to its utmost. There must be that strong determination to do or die. Keep looking upward; there is always room at the top, and men are wanted to occupy this room. In the first place choose a profession. Make up your mind what you intend to do and then do it. Goldsmith and Grant are examples of such men. In the second place watch your opportunities. If you see chances for improvement, seize them and develop them. Under this heading come men like Watt, Fulton, Edison and Morse. In the third place watch small things. Don't let them slip by you as unimportant. The little things are often the ones that count. If all men had neglected the small incidents in their lives, there would be no Cooper Institute in New York; there would be no Lafferty Banking house in Paris. Still further, have backbone and the power of sticking to a thing; but above all take God with you. An illustration is brought out in the life of Mr. Huyler, the great candy manufacturer. When he started in business, he had the letters G. S. P. on his little shop. No one seemed to know what this meant until years afterward, when he gave away a large part of his fortune, he told a number of his friends that God had been his silent partner, and that he owed all his success to Him.

"Then in the name of God advancing,
 Plow and sow and labor now.

Let there be when evening cometh,
 Honest sweat upon thy brow;
 And then will come the master,
 When work stops at set of sun,
 Saying, as he pays the wages,
 'Good and faithful one, well done.'"

PICK-UPS

Miss Behney, '06, entertained a number of friends, last Saturday evening.

Among those at the Haverford-Ursinus game were Mrs. James Harwood Closson and Mrs. Henry Bell, Germantown, Mrs. H. Emmet Roberts, Philadelphia, and Mr. Marcus Rowe, Reading.

Krusen, '09, entertained W. Warwick Felton, Philadelphia, over Sunday.

Miss Behney, '06, and Miss Rise, A., spent Tuesday in Philadelphia.

Harman, '06, and Cope, '09, held services at the Alms House on Sunday.

Reisner, '07, visited Reading on Thursday, on football business.

Miss Hobson, '06, spent Sunday in Pottstown.

Miss Rise, A., received a visit from her sister, Miss Rebecca Rise, Lebanon last Saturday.

Miss Mary E. Shade, '04, spent part of the week as the guest of Miss Alma Clamer, '04. Miss Shade also attended the Teacher's Institute at Norristown this week.

Miss Carolyn Sheridan, Kutztown and Miss Florence Beaver, Reading were entertained our Sunday at Olevian by Miss Neff and Miss Duryea.

Miss Clymer, A, visited her parents in Philadelphia over Sunday.

EDITORIAL

The first edition of the Supplement came out with last week's issue, and contained a number of good articles. The criticism, that few of these articles were written expressly for the Supplement, is heard. This criticism is just. The fault, however, does not lie with the editors. They tried their very best to collect material which had not been written for some other purpose, but from all sides came the cry, "I can't write" or "I am too busy to write anything at present." Now, instead of criticising the material published in the Supplement, get to work and see what you can contribute. Short stories are very acceptable, but they have been few and far between. Poems, also are always greatly appreciated. We do not want the Supplement filled with too much heavy material. Therefore, you, who have the talent and ability to write a poem do so, and hand it in for the next Supplement; and you, novelist "in embryo," put your brain and wits to work and produce a few stories. The value of literary work is inestimable, and by producing articles for the Supplement, you will not only show to the college world how well you are able to express yourself, but at the same time benefit yourself and help the institution.

SOCIETY NOTES

ZWINGLIAN

The interesting and much absorbing question, "Resolved, That Japanese supremacy in the East will jeopardize the interests of the Powers" was debated by the society. The speakers on the affirmative side were Moore, Stoner, Hamme and Koerper. The negative was upheld by Brown, Sponsler, Stamy and Leidy. A summary of the arguments is as follows:

Affirmative: 1. Japan's influence over China has been the direct cause of the boycott of American goods by the Chinese and the cancellation of the Canton-Hankow Railroad contract.

2. Japan, through her influence over China, will get the lion's share of the silks and teas of China.

3. Japan has cheap and at the same time good labor, and her mastery of the silk industry will make her an underseller in the markets of the world.

4. Japan's trade has increased seven-fold in the last decade.

5. French disregard during the late war of the International Neutrality Laws will make Japan and France rivals.

6. The Anglo Japanese alliance is really a trade league, which will be to the detriment of the trade of other nations.

Negative: 1. The Peace Conference at Portsmouth shows that Japan is able to control her ambitions.

2. Japan wants a future and wants to be a leader in the East, and she will, as a consequence, show self-control.

3. Japanese control over China will develop the latter country, and thus stimulate trade with other countries.

4. Japan, with all her advantages, will not be able to outstrip the United States.

5. Japan favors the "open door" in China.

6. Japan will be to the East what the United States is to the West.

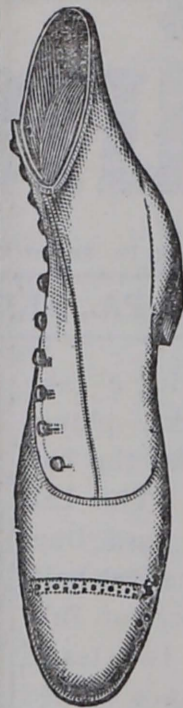

The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. General debate followed. The house decided in favor of the negative. A very spicy Review was read by Stoner, '08. Under voluntary exercises Mr. Wise sang "A Son of the Desert am I," and as an encore, "All Through the Night." Both were well rendered and pleasing to the audience.

Morvin Godshall, A, of Phoenixville, and Henry Mader, A, of Philadelphia were elected active members of the Society.

A Hallowe'en program will be rendered Friday evening, Oct. 27.

SCHAFF

The program in the Schaff hall last Friday night was opened with a vocal solo by Foltz, '06 who sang Trevelyan's "To-day." The question,—Resolved that Insurance Companies should be under Federal instead of under State Control, was then discussed. The chief affirmative speaker was Ebbert, '07, the first speaker, Dotterer, '06 and the second speaker, Lenhart, '07. The negative chief was Myers, '07, the first speaker, Miss Paiste, '06, the second speaker Fegley, '07.

The affirmative arguments were:
 1. There would be an increase in security.

2. There would be a decrease in the cost of insurance.

3. There would be an increase in the return to policy holders.

4. It would stamp out fraudulent concerns.

The negative side claimed that,

1. It would be unnecessary.

2. It would be inexpedient.

3. It would be unconstitutional.

The judge, Heller, '07, decided in favor of the affirmative. After general debate the house decided in favor of the negative.

Schaff was pleased to welcome as a new member, Mr. Roland Umstead, '09, Trappe, Pa. We were glad to have the visitors present and were pleased to hear a few remarks from Dr. Shaw.

Y. M. C. A.

The regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A., was conducted by Yost, A., who spoke on the subject,— Keeping your Brother. He said in part:

Selfishness, in itself a sin, is productive of more sin and misery than any of the other vices. Our own pleasure, our peace and happiness is frequently secured at the expense of others. This is not as it should be. If we would be truly helpful, helpful in the highest and best sense of the word, we must sacrifice self, must put it in the back-ground. With us it should be a matter of little consequence. Our motto should be "Not for self, but for others;" and in view of the Master's words, "Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it, but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it;" we ought always to be willing and ready if necessary, to give our lives in the spirit of self-sacrificing love for our fellowmen. "Look not every one upon his own things" says the Apostle but also upon the things of others. Let selfishness give way to altruism. Let us endeavor to put the golden rule into daily practice, to live it in our lives. "Do unto others as you would that they should do unto you."

SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Mr. E. L. Sommerlatte of Philadelphia has joined the Junior Class. He is a son of Rev. Paul Sommerlatte, formerly harbor missionary stationed at New York, and now the successor of Rev. Philip Vollmer, Ph. D., D. D., to the pastorate of St. Paul's German Reformed Church, Philadelphia.

A number of changes have been made in the heating plant and the entire system has been made more effective.

A class for sight-singing will be organized among the students. The purpose of the class will be to familiarize the students with our Reformed hymns and especially to give them a knowledge of the principles of music that, if necessary, they may be able to lead in singing.

Mr. John Lentz preached for Rev. Frank Laros at Pottstown on Sunday. Mr. Yeisley preached at the Schwenkfelder church, Philadelphia and Mr. Ditzler at Wayne Junction.

Dr. Vollmer attended the meetings of Potomac Synod, at Newport, Pa., last week, where he met a considerable number of graduates and friends of Ursinus. Among these were Appenzeller, Berk, Garrett, Thorn, Murphy, Keeler, Leinbach, Stauffer, Stibitz, Brodbeck, Gerber, Paulus, Wicks, and others. On Oct. 29, Dr. Vollmer, preached both morning and afternoon in Bethel charge and in the evening in Rev. Fluck's church at Myerstown.

COLLEGE WORLD

At the University of California the athletes are to be given a separate class in gymnasium work, and receive credits towards graduation for their work on the gridiron, diamond and track.

President Theodore Roosevelt last week met with the football coaches of several of the larger Eastern Universities to confer with them in regard to means of suppressing holding, coaching from the side lines and general roughness in football. The Orange and Blue in commenting upon this meeting says, "This action on the part of the President seems to point strongly in favor of the supposition that he will some day be the head of a great university."

Amherst has dropped basketball from her athletics.

The football game between the Midshipmen and the Cadets will be played on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, this year as usual.

HILL SEC., 15. URSINUS SEC., 0.

On Wednesday the second team journeyed to Pottstown and met defeat at the hands of the Hill School second eleven. Hill did not outweigh the scrubs, but they were much faster and their interference was excellent. In the first half the scrubs gave a good exhibition of defensive work. Hill scored four points on a goal from the field by Johnson. The ball was partially blocked and just went over the cross-bar. Before the close of the half Garcia made a good run of twenty-five yards on a delayed pass.

In the second half the scrubs went to pieces, and Hill scored twice. Smith was the best ground gainer for Hill while Garcia, Cook and Fry gained best for Ursinus. Harman and Keasey were strong on defence, while Kerschner and Sponsler, often threw a runner for a loss on an end run. For new men Steward and Lau played very well. The chief faults of the team were the slow charging of the line, and the failure of the backs to break up the interference.

MARLIN

THE Marlin RIFLE, Model 1892, .32 calibre, is the best rifle made for exterminating pests and torments about a place, as rats, weazels, woodchucks, etc., also for a companion on your vacation trip, combining the good points of the old muzzle-loading squirrel rifle with the convenience and rapid fire of the most improved repeater. It is so constructed that the same rifle uses the following cartridges: .32 short and long rim-fire, .32 short and long center-fire, and is the only repeater made using rim-fire cartridges larger than .22 calibre.

The short cartridges are just the thing for small game while the long ones kill animals of fair size easily. On the first 2000 cartridges used you have saved the cost of a Marlin.

New Marlin Catalog—and our Experience Book that tells what Marlins are doing the world over—Free, for 6c. postage.
