FOOTBALL.

N. F. GUTSHALL, MANAGER.

The Varsity stands at last on the eve of their hardest battle. Tomorrow they will go up against a team that in all probability will give them a fiercer tussle than Dickinson. The N. Y. U. team has a good record, but Ursinus has also a splendid record, having won every game, and three by big margins. The men seem to be in fair condition, no serious physical injuries have as yet struck the team; the men are there and are ready to fight and win. Already the Varsity have opened the way to football prestige by downing Dickinson and all we need is college-spirit. College-spirit, enthusiastic and continuous is what is needed. Those who are not playing can spare one hour from 5 to 6 each night and come out to cheer the team. A professor or two and a few loyal co-eds are all that shine on the grand stand each night. Again, College-spirit is what counts and it is the fellow who gets through school brimming with that spirit rather than the one who has crammed his head into mental decay, that is going to profit himself and the institution at large.

In connection with this review we must also speak of the training table. When a fellow rushes up and down a field two hours every night he wants solid food and plenty of it. This season's success depends upon two points, first-class training and college-spirit. The former point may seem minor but it has been a prime factor in defeat more than once.

URSINUS, 38. L. V. C., 0.

The Varsity ran up 38 points in the last practice game. The Red and Black's goal was never in danger. L. C. V. received the kick-off, failed to gain and punted at once. When Ursinus got the ball they worked it straight down the field, Roth made 10 yds., Rapp 20, and Price 35, carrying the ball over the goal line for the first down, L. V. C. kicked off and Roth, Price, Hobson, Rapp and Place took it over without a break. Once again the pigskin began an advance down the field, when at the 30 yd line it was given a rest until Price dropped back and sent it between the posts for a pretty field goal. End of first half Ursinus 32—L. V. C., 0. In the second half unfortunate fumbling kept the score down. Place, Butz and Haines ran for big gains whenever given the ball.

Final score U., 38, L. V. C., 0.

PENNSYLVANIA GERMANS.

Last Friday afternoon 150 members of the Pennsylvania German Society visited Ursinus College. The Dean, J. Shelley Weinberger, LL. D. delivered an address of welcome to which Dr. Dubbs of Franklin and Marshall, responded in a very happy mood. He claimed a brotherhood with Ursinus, commended the good work of the institution, and expressed a wish for its continued success and prosperity. A. W. Bomberger, '82, Esq., by request recited one of his poems.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION.

Saturday evening, Bomberger Memorial Hall was the scene of one of the most delightful social gatherings ever held within its walls. Bunting in college colors added beauty to the occasion.

An informal program was rendered. Piano solos by Miss Marion G. Spangler, '03, interspersed several selections from Riley given by Mr. H. H. McCollum, '05. An "Autograph" game and college songs followed. Prizes were then awarded to the persons having secured the largest number of autographs during the period devoted to the game.

After refreshments, the cosy corners which had been arranged so tastefully in the alcoves of the Library were fully utilized.

The Association desires to express its hearty thanks to all who helped in any way to make its reception a success.

AUDUBON SCIENCE CLUB.

The first monthly meeting of the Audubon Science Club for this year was held on Tuesday evening.

A. E. Wagner, '03; M. P. Laros, '03; C. G. Place, '05; H. H. McCollum, '05; C. D. Trexler, '05; and Elliot Frederick, '05, were admitted to active membership.

The election of officers resulted: President, W. E. Hoffsommer, '03; Vice President, J. E. Hoyt, '04; Secretary, E. Frederick, '05; Treasurer, I. M. Rapp, '03; Members of the Executive Committee, Professors G. L. Omwake and H. V. Gummere.

Professor Gummere read an interesting paper on "Asteroids." He discussed the discovery of Ceres, the first known asteroid, and how discoveries had since been increased by the change from the telescopic to the photographic method of research. He also showed how astronomers hoped, by finding the distance from the earth to Eros, our nearest asteroid, to be able to compute with greater accuracy the distance from the different planets to the sun.

Mr. Rapp reported on the journals.

The Audubon Science Club is devoted to the investigation of the up-to-date problems in Chemistry, Biology, Physics, Zoology, Mathematics and Astronomy. The meetings are held on the first Tuesday evening of each month.

NEW CAMPUS SONG.

Air—Drink to me only with thine eyes.

Beneath the woven shade once more
In dear old college days,
Awhile the twilight darkness o'er
We'll sing Ursinus' praise.
The bonds that held thy sons of yore
Around our hearts entwine;
Nor love of wife or maiden fair
Shall dim the light of thine.

Though years may send us far from thee
Who at thy altars throng,
Though through the pathways of the world

Our way be rough and long,
Our hearts will turn where'er we be
With longing deep and strong,
Our voices join in memory
To wake the old-time song.

URSINUS.

Tune: America.

Ursinus, 'tis of thee,
Thy jolly life and free,
Of thee we sing.
We love thy classic walls,
Thy great and hallowed halls,
And when thy loved voice calls,
Our voices ring.

Let our yell swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees,
Ursinus' song.
Let Red, Old Gold and Black
Be seen in every track;
Let Spirit never lack,
The sound prolong.

'89. Quite a little commotion was created recently by the preaching of a series of sermons relating to the strike situation in the anthracite regions on the part of the Rev. O. H. E. Rauch, A. B., of Slatington, Pa. His subjects were: "The Mean Operator;" "The Angry Striker;" "The Abused Scab;" "Eight Hours a Day;" and "The Immoral Strike."

FRIDAY OCT. 10, 1902.

There is a high tone of morality involved in maintaining a state of physical training which will bring a football player into the best possible condition. The word necessity plays such a large part in changing the ordinary student, with sufficient lung power to last perhaps a hundred yards of jogging, into a student who can be turned into a battering ram for two twenty-five minute halves.

This obligation to bring the body under the will includes something more than the mere eating at a training table. Real training does not permit irregular eating outside of meal time, nor does it mean late hours—nor, in fact, excess in any way. The man who would become physically able to play a hard game of football must be temperate; he must look beyond mere present gratification and pleasure to that larger satisfaction of knowing that he is becoming and is a better man than before; and this decision and the attempt to maintain such an ideal strengthens the moral stamina.

LIBRARY NOTES.

The following books and magazines are missing from the Library: Coleridge, Vol I; McClintock and Strong, Vol. VIII; Ollendorf's Spanish Reader; Latin Pronunciation by D. B. King; October's Harper's Magazine.

The Library hours are as follows: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, 8.15 a. m. to 5 p. m., being closed 1 to 2 p. m. Saturday, 9 a. m. to 12.00 m. Sunday, 2 to 5 p. m. Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights, 7 p. m. to 8.30 p. m.

It might be well if all the students would read the Rules of the Library in regard to loud talking, taking books out of Library without the Librarian's consent, etc.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

Both literary societies held very interesting and live debates Friday evening September 26. A phase of the Coal Strike was considered in the Schaff; the Zwinglians discussed Reform vs. Punishment in our Prison System. Messrs. John H. S. Spangler, A., Collegeville and J. B. Paiste, A., Philadelphia were elected active members of the Schaff. The Zwinglian elected Mr. David R. Wise, '06, Reading, to active membership.

The miscellaneous program in the Schaff Society on Friday evening, October 3, was entertaining throughout. Mr. Hoffsommer's recital of Poe's "Raven" was the leading feature. The bi-monthly election of officers resulted as follows: President, J. L. Roth, '03; Vice-President, W. R. Anson, '03; Recording Secretary, Miss Lillian C. Lutes, '06; Financial Secretary, E. Fredrick, '05; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Clara A. Myers, '06; First Editor, W. E. Hoffsommer, '03; Second Editor, H. Graber, '03; Chaplain, F. H. Hobson, '03; Critic, C. G. Haines, '03; Treasurer, C. D. Trexler, '05; Pianist, Miss Caroline E. Paiste, '06; Janitor, C. S. Dotterer, '06.

Mr. Herbert Hughes of Royersford, Miss Clara A. Myers of Flora Dale, Mr. H. H. McCollum of Espy, Mr. Fred. M. Fogleman of Pittsburg, and Mr. H. S. Gottshall of Schwenksville were elected as active members.

The Zwinglian Literary Society rendered a program entitled "A Night with Great Orators" last Friday evening. Demosthenes, Cicero, Burke, Patrick Henry, and Webster were given due recognition. A piano solo by Miss Katherine E. Laros, '00 and music by a mixed quartette were much enjoyed. A. G. Peters, '03 delivered an oration on "The Neglect of Oratory."

weaknesses were revealed by this game. Perkiomen found the line for small gains, but ran the ends for large gains. The chief drawback in the scrub is their greenness. The ends were fooled by the opposing back field and drawn in.

However, Snyder's tackling was superb; he has loads of nerve and will develop into a good end. Even when the scrub had the ball the attack was not concerted enough. Foltz and Hartman ran in the interference and they give signs of making good guards. Foltz runs low and hard. Schweyer is being developed at q. b.; this is wise for it will advance a q. b. for a couple of years. If all the scrub men come out every night and get acquainted with the game and with one another a fast team can be gotten together. All the men are urged to come out regularly for it is the only way to develop a scrub. The following was the line-up in the Perkiomen game.
