Weed Ordinance Passed

The weed nuisance ordinance making it mandatory to cut ragweed and other obnoxious weeds was passed at third and final reading and now becomes law.

Horace Godshall, who is planning a building development between Sixth and Seventh avenues, complained that the Boro authorities were not cooperating on their end of a previous understanding to have the proposed roads constructed thru County aid. The Boro authorities in turn said they had no indication from Godshall that he desired immediate action and that they had been waiting for Godshall to complete his end of the bargain.

"BALL AND (HAIN" on American Progress

> Never in the history of the world has any nation made as much material, social and spiritual progress as has America in the brief 164 years of its existence.

Surely, there must be something fine, vital and strong in a democracy which could harmonize the discordant elements in many races and creeds, the fiercely divergent opinions, the strong commercial rivalries, into a free nation of 130,000,000 people.

Strictly "on its record," who dare say that democracy is a rickety, out-of-date vehicle of human progress?
