My dear Hilles:

Herewith I enclose a note to Mr. Austin together with a memorandum. I should think the President's activity in the direction of establishing arrangements for cheap and easy borrowing by farmers would be a thing that would appeal greatly to the agricultural vote and should be exploited in the campaign book, as it is mentioned in the party platform.

With hearty congratulations on your splendid work at Chicago and looking forward with pleasure to seeing you soon, I remain always

Yours sincerely,

Hennington Wilson

Charles D. Hilles, Esquire,

Secretary to The President.
