April 30, 1909.

My dear Mr. Wilson:

I beg to return the memorandum which you were kind enough to hand me some days ago, and which I have read with great interest. To what extent these suggestions may be practically availed of, I am, of course, not in a position to say. In fact, some of the suggestions appended to your memorandum appear to be quite radical. However, I hope in the near future to have an opportunity to talk with you about this whole situation, and suggest that you have the memorandum at hand at that time. I very much hope considerable improvement in immigration conditions may be affected by the mutual agreements of the several governments involved.

Sincerely yours,

Charles Dwyer
Secretary.

Hon. Huntington Wilson,
Assistant Secretary of State.
