Dear Mr. Minister:

By the Secretary's direction I send you in this informal way a few facts about Mr. Sherrill, as of possible interest to you by way of supplement to the letter requesting you to ascertain his agreement.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]

Senor Don Epifanio Portela,
etc., etc., etc.,
Minister of the Argentine Republic.
Mr. Charles H. Sherrill, of New York, is a graduate of Yale University, where he became quite celebrated as an athlete. He is a lawyer and has taken an active part in politics, and he is very highly thought of by the President. He has some knowledge of Spanish and is a very agreeable gentleman.
