15th century. This element in its pure form had to been made.
This element was not in use commercially until the 1920's.

was deciphered in 1969 and this anagram was found.

"My call is to the young at heart, regardless of age, to those stouthearted, those who want to live the American.
"Be of good courage, be not afraid, only believe."

If you are an animal lover, or even a plant lover, you may want to consider taking a trip to the Collegeville Zoo.
