April 19, 1909.

My dear Louise:

I am returning your two letters to the Department of Agriculture in order that you yourself may mail them, if you still wish to do so. My own opinion is that is the actual authorities of any school or lecture course who themselves directly address the Department of Agriculture in inquiring what assistance that branch of the Government might possibly be able to give, so I should think you would better let Miss Brooks make her own application. Doing it through a third person, like yourself, would in my opinion simply complicate correspondence. However, this is only advice.

It must be very agreeable these Spring days in Vermont and I hope you are well and contented.

With warm regards from us both, I remain,

Affectionately yours,

Miss Loring,
75 Linden Street,
Brattleboro, Vermont.
