My dear Mr. Einstein:

Many thanks for your notes of March 24th and 29th and for your repeated kindnesses in bothering for me about the cigarettes. I always feel that I rather impose upon the Embassy in this matter. I really greatly appreciate your ~~simple~~ care in ordering the cigarettes and getting them promptly sent.

You are certainly to be envied in being at Constantinople during such epoch making days.

With kind regards, I remain, always,

Yours very sincerely,

W. H. H. H.

Lewis Einstein, Esquire,

American Embassy,

Constantinople, Turkey.
