Everyone at Ursinus College knows that Richard P. Richter is the President of the College and that he was also a student as well as an English professor at Ursinus. But how did he accomplish all of these things?

President Richter graduated from Ursinus College in 1953 and began his career in the business world. But in 1965 he saw a new area of endeavor — an opening to become an educator at Ursinus. Although there was less financial security and a less clear future for him, he thought well of the college and was familiar with its idealistic objectives. That year, 1965, was one of great vitality and social change, with protests against Vietnam and the reassessment of young people.

While teaching English, Mr. Richter became the Alumni Secretary, then the Assistant to the President. In 1969 he took the role of Vice President of Administrative Affairs, and in 1976 he was elected President of the College. He attributes this accomplishment to a combination of chance and of a purposeful decision with the unselfish guidance and support of Dr. D.L. Hellferich, then President.

Since his years as a student, the President has seen many changes at Ursinus. He believes that it has fundamentally improved in its general resources — those that were once limited have now become deeper and richer. This improvement shows through a better curriculum, better faculty facilities, and the new physical plant. Despite all of these changes, though, there has been and still is “an informal, caring kind of faculty, a bonding of student and teacher.” This tie is not simply educational in nature; it also is social, and often lasts a lifetime. President Richter admits that there is a community sense between himself and many on the staff who were once his teachers and advisors (for instance, Professors Davis, Parsons, Dolman, Jones, and Symons all taught him and he feels that they are proud to have helped him get to where he is now).

When asked about what is so special about Ursinus College that other colleges lack, President Richter points out two characteristics. The first is what he calls “the mission” — that is, administering to undergraduates a liberal education. This has always been the objective, with an emphasis on teaching.
Richard P. Richter

The student has a sense of being the center of attention, and student-teacher ties are a serious matter and are seen as important for advancement. The second topic is that of climate. Ursinus College is well-known for its friendly climate, and this is a reputation that has been maintained for years. Another part of this climate is the development of compulsive workers—that is, students become adept in time-management.

Using the phrase, "If you’re not going forward, you’re going backward," President Richter aims to move Ursinus toward a more visible place of leadership among liberal arts colleges. He believes leadership should also be a top priority for Ursinus students. "They should be more aware of their future role as leaders of the world coming on." America, he feels, has become so consumed with specialization that most people seem to have forgotten the whole. Ursinus students at twenty years of age, he says, must think of themselves as those who will be running the world thirty years from now—and they should be able to deal with the whole thing. They should round out their education as much as possible while at Ursinus and prepare to use all of their talents.

1986 is President Richter’s tenth anniversary as President of Ursinus College. In these ten years, he has advocated many changes, but he feels he has made two significant accomplishments. First, he has reaffirmed the faculty as the central focus of the college through an improvement in tangible resources for the faculty. Second, he has successfully sustained a helping and caring relationship among faculty and students. He feels "the rigorous pursuit of liberal learning takes place best within a community atmosphere such as ours."

Congratulations, President Richter, on your continuing success: this 1986 Ruby is dedicated to you!

Profile: Devin Murphy

President of U.S.G.A. and member for two years, Resident Assistant, sister of Kappa Delta Kappa, All-American Lacrosse player who is captain of the women's varsity team, and recipient of the Senior Alumni Award, this description fits what prominent U.S. student? The Ruby would like to introduce Devin Murphy.

Besides these activities, Devin was selected to be one of the few students that represent Ursinus in Who's Who Among College Students. Some of her hobbies include basketball, racquetball and socializing.

Devin has aspirations of being a Systems Analyst dealing with customer relations for a computer firm when she graduates. These aspirations encompass her Mathematics discipline with a concentration in computer science.

As a Senior at Hatboro Horsham High School, Devin took into careful consideration exactly what criteria would make her college career the best she could have hoped for. These criteria, cover a large spectrum, but Ursinus covered them all for Devin. As she says, "I was looking for a small liberal arts college that was science (math) oriented. I wanted to play Lacrosse and U.C.'s program is very competitive. I wanted to be close to home and be able to be involved in many different activities and Ursinus had all that."

Devin's Ursinus career has been a full one that has reached into many different areas of college life. We hope that Devin's post-Ursinus career will be as full and rewarding as those at Ursinus College.

Profile: Sam McNulty

As a freshman at Ursinus he began as a Biology major, but quickly changed to a concentration he loved "because I enjoy reading": English. Sam McNulty will not only graduate with a B.A. in English, but also one in Economics/Business Administration. After graduation, Sam will be attending Law School. He has been accepted to schools on both the east and west coast, but the east coast is his preferred choice.

During his freshman year at U.C. Sam has been an active figure on campus. He is a brother of Alpha Phi Epsilon, as a senior he was voted President of Inter-Fraternity Council. He has been a Resident Assistant for two years, worked as an English Department Assistant and was on The Grizzly staff. Favorite pasttimes that he enjoys are reading and weight lifting. Sam can also be seen around campus while working with the Maintenance Staff.

When asked why Sam chose U.C., he responded, "The people were friendly and I liked the atmosphere of the college." But they weren't his only reasons. He really liked the Football program, at that time the program was just getting on its feet. Sam has been on the team all four years. His football career has ended after this '85 winning season. But with the end of one great career is sure to be the start of another and for Sam it will be in the field of Law.

Summit eases tension; major problems remain

After all the ballyhoo, how does the Reagan-Gorbachev summit meeting stack up against expectations, or lack thereof?

It was encouraging to see the two leaders side by side, talking civilly and acting as if both recognized the need to confront each other's realities. It was a good start," said President Reagan to Congress with apparent confidence to do something even if nothing convinced the other.

Even if we were convinced the other would spend only 15 hours of face-to-face conversations, our hope remains only in the prelude of peace. We think it was granting of...

The Lady Bears (13-6-1) rose as high as No. 6 in early October before a tough 2-1 loss to North Carolina, then ranked No. 1. They settled for a third straight bid to the ECAC tournament in Boston, losing in the semifinals to Northeastern.

After three straight heartbreaking losses in midseason, the football team rallied to win its last three games and finish the year 5-4, its first winning season since 1972 and only its fifth winner since back to 1933.

Coach Sterling Brown returned from a serious back operation to guide the Grizzlies to down-the-stretch wins over Washington & Lee (26-23), Dickinson (15-14) and Catholic U. (21-14). Thirteen senior starters, the fruit of his first recruiting class, crowned their football careers with hard-earned success.
With three starters out with injuries much of the year, the soccer team came within seconds of winning the first division title in its 54-year history.

The Bears (14-6-3) tied Swarthmore for the MAC Southeast Division crown but lost in a playoff, 1-0, when Swarthmore scored with 30 seconds to go. During the regular season, the Bears held a 2-1 lead over Swarthmore before giving up a goal with 23 seconds left and settling for a tie.

For the fifth straight year, Coach Walt Manning led his club into the ECAC title game. They won the crown in 1983, finished second in 1984, and took second again this year, losing in the final to Plymouth (N.H.) State, 2-1, in four overtimes.

When Coach Bob Shoudt returned to Ursinus on August 8, the cross country outlook seemed bleak. The men's team had only one regular back from 1984, and the women's team did not exist. But Shoudt, the architect of the MAC championship teams of 1980 and 1981, went to work and brought home two winning clubs.

The men, led by senior co-captain Tom Kershner, surprised a lot of people by posting a 7.5 mark and finishing 17th out of 25 teams at the MAC championships.

The volleyball team stumbled to a 5-15 record, the only loser of the fall season. In twelve years of Volleyball, Ursinus' best record has been 8-9. But the program is still very young. It took the mighty field hockey team about two decades to become a dominant force after it started up in 1920.

Under the direction of Adele Boyd and Walter Keehn, the Ursinus Badminton team experienced a fairly successful season. Lacking publicity from the Athletic Department, the team overcame this setback by displaying an exemplary amount of spirit and dedication. Tri-captains Kerry Norse, Kim Walter, and Sheri Green guided the squad predominantly composed of Badminton Rookies.

Many personal triumphs were achieved throughout the season. Sheri Green was successful in obtaining the PAIAW Group B singles championships. Kerry Norse made it to the quarter finals of the coveted Williamsburg invitational tournament. Also, Kim Walter and Walter Keehn won their first mixed doubles match in four years. The underclassmen — Kris Steumple, Jill Coldren, Barb Wenny, Chris Fedorkiw, Lynn Albrecht, and Mia Mengucci — show great promise and will be looked upon to carry the conviction of the team next year.

The Men’s Badminton club was rejuvenated this year thanks to such future greats as Paul Kim, Ron Lutz, Rick Levine, Brian Holloway and Dave Reilly. Best of luck to the boys next year.

Quite a few Ursinus followers were pleasantly surprised with Al Angelos' first season as head coach. The Bears finished 10-16. But in the MAC they defied the odds and almost made it to the league playoffs. The team went 7-3 in the Southeast Division and tied Widener for the second of two playoff spots. In January Ursinus upset Widener in overtime, 53-51, handing the Pioneer their first league loss at home in five years. All the Bears return next year, including Mike Schaffer, who led the club in scoring and in rebounding.

Without a senior on the roster, and with just one player over 5' 8", the Lady Bears rebounded from a 1984 record of 1-18 to 8-13, including a 7-5 record in MAC. Three new people made the difference: forward Bridget Algeo (fr.), led the club in scoring (10.4 pts/game), center Laura Letukas (fr.), hauled down 8.5 rebounds, and Michele Repko (jr.) gave great backcourt play. Coach Strawoet also got improved play from his veterans. Forward Bobbie Sue Copley finished second in scoring and rebounding and guard Ginny Migliore led in steals and assists.

MAC Championships: 4th
Record: 6-3

MAC Championships began Feb. 27. The Bears did handsomely, repeating their 4th place finish of last year (among 13 teams), winning nine medals and breaking 10 of 16 school records. Senior Jerry Killoran gave the Bears their only gold medal, winning the 50-yd freestyle in a school record 21.03 seconds. Junior John McGurk took 3rd in the 200 breast and 4th in the 100 breast, and Pete Smith finished 4th in the 100 back and 5th in the 200 back. Dave McDevitt broke four school records: 50, 100 and 200 butterfly and 400 individual medley.

MAC Championships: 4th of 20
Record: 16-6
Wrestling coach, Bill Racich had to mold a freshman-dominated team into a winner, and as tournament director for MAC's, which U.C. hosted for the first time since 1937. He led the team to a 16-6 mark, setting a school record for wins in a season. For the second straight year, they finished 4th in MAC's. The championships took place Feb. 21-22. Five wrestlers came away with medals. Ben Randazzo won a bronze at 134 lbs and Ron Matthew at heavyweight. Chuck Odgers took 4th at 177 lbs. John Love finished 5th at 190 and K.C. McCleary won 6th at 167.
Wilson Kulp (Coach), Jim Moyer (Assistant Coach), Rob Richardson (co-captain), Dave Kulp (co-captain), Roger Brewster (co-captain), Ed Malandro (co-captain), Pete Atlosmes, John Dillon, Scott Smiley, Richie LaFaver, Todd Blue, Gene Metzger, Tycho Fredericks, Joe Donovan, Ed Wentzel, Joe Kelly, Wally Tittlemayer, John Ginley.
Once again the Bears hit the ball like they'd invented the game. Once again they fielded like they'd never heard of the game. It was the same old story for Ursinus baseball: solid hitting, inconsistent pitching, hari-kiri fielding. Together they added up to a fifth straight non-winning season.

The Bears were young enough to profit by their mistakes. Every regular will return in 1987, hopefully with steadier gloves. Fielding miscues made the difference in several close games. They lost five games by a single run and three more by two runs.

The pitching showed improvement over the year before. Sophomore Joe Donovan started six games and completed five, leading the staff with a 3.82 ERA. Sophomore Ritch LaFaver, who couldn't pitch in 1985 because of a wrist injury, won his first two college starts. When he wasn't pitching, LaFaver started at shortstop and hit safely in all but two games. Sophomore rightfielder John Dillon connected for at least one hit in all but three games, earning second-team all-MAC honors. LaFaver, Dillon, catcher Ed Wentzel and Roger Brewster all batted over .300.

Record: 6-14
On April 3, in the third match of the year, junior Charlie White shot the first hole-in-one in Ursinus golf history. Right then and there, you knew it was going to be a special year, and that's what it turned out to be.

After going 14-5 in the regular season, their second best record ever, the Bears took fourth place among 21 teams at the MAC championships, also their second best showing. The only better Ursinus team teed off in 1979, when coach Dave Trumbower was a senior and helped the Bears go 16-1 and tie for third in the MAC's.

Among 104 golfers at the MAC championships, none of the five Bears finished worse than 49th. Sophomore Scott Klee wound up 16th, sophomore Paul Leddy tied for 19th and senior Dave Wilson tied for 25th.

As well as they did, the Bears were somewhat disappointed with their showing. During the regular season, they'd beaten both Scranton and King's, who finished second and third at the MAC meet.
Betsy Meng Ramsey (Coach), Anita Deasey (Assistant Coach), Donna Wurzbach (co-captain), Devin Murphy (co-captain), Kelee Whiteley, JoAnn Schoenherr, Lynda Hobbs-Fernie, Lisa D'Ambrogi, Jill Johnson, Nanci Sarcinello, Liz Mita, Lois Groff, Marie Leahy, Tami Trauger, Sue Thomas, Barb Caffrey, Beth Bingaman, Bobbie Sue Coplay, Paula Fronckowiak, Diane Johnson
Devin Murphy and Beth Bingaman each whipped in four goals and Jill Johnson stood out on defense as Ursinus rallied from a three-goal deficit to beat defending champion Trenton State, 12-10, for the NCAA Division III women's lacrosse title May 17 at the University of Maryland.

The Bears, ranked No. 1 all season, avenged last year's upset at the hands of Trenton State, regaining the crown they won in 1983 and 1984. Trenton entered the game ranked No. 3.

Even though it was their third title in four years, it was the first NCAA team championship in Ursinus history. The NCAA began sponsoring a Division III women's lacrosse tournament in 1985. Before that, the tournament was held under the auspices of the U.S. Women's Lacrosse Association.

Devin Murphy, who led the title game comeback with three goals in the second half, earned all-America honors for the second straight year. She wound up with 58 goals for the season (third highest in school history) and 144 for her career (second best behind the 164 of Sue Morley, Class of '81). Her 78 career assists put her at the top of the all-time Ursinus list.

Senior attack wing Donna Wurzbach (44 goals) and sophomore cover point Bobbie Sue Coplay joined Devin as first-team All-Americans. Senior goalie Paula Fronckowiak earned second-team honors. Devin and Paula were picked for the annual North-South All-Star Game in Baltimore, where they played with and against mainly Division I standouts.

No less than six Bears were named to both the all-Philadelphia area and all-Pennsylvania teams — Bobbie Sue, Devin, Donna, junior second home Beth Bingaman (52 goals), sophomore defense wing Jill Johnson.

Under coach Betsy Meng Ramsey, the Bears went undefeated against Division III opposition, losing only to Division I foes Temple, Delaware and West Chester. Meanwhile they beat five other Division I teams — Old Dominion, Drexel, Lehigh, Lafayette and Rutgers — by a combined score of 60-23.

Congratulations again to the 1986 Ursinus Lacrosse team!
Softball

Joan Moser (Coach), Judy Rippert (co-captain), Sally Grim (co-captain), Leigh Garrison (co-captain), Lynda Cicco, Kelly Byrne, Karen Ziegler, Kris Carr, Kelly Ames, Chris Rogahn, Judy Forester, Janet Young, Theresa Prato, Kim Santerian, Sue DeCoursey, Debi Dolenjak, Missy O'Donnell
When their college careers were over, Sally Grim, Judy Forster, Leigh Garrison, Judy Rippert, Karen Ziegler and Chris Rogahn could all show four of a kind: four division titles in four years.

When Sally Grim fired a two-hitter for a 1-0 win over Moravian on April 30, the Bears (16-9-2) clinched their fourth straight Southeast Division crown in MAC's. Three days later Sally Grim cranked up another two-hitter, and the Bears blanked Gettysburg, 3-0, for their third straight MAC South title.

The Bears acquired one of the best coaches around when Joan Moser took over in 1986 after coaching North Penn High to three state championships. They already had one of the best arms around in Grim, a three-time all-leaguer.

Sophomore catcher Kris Carr led the club with a .344 average and 26 RBI's in 25 games. Centerfielder Leigh Garrison hit .330 in the leadoff spot and displayed an unparalleled knack for scoring runs. She got on base 42 times and came around to score 29 runs.
In 1985 the Bears came through with a 12-5 mark, setting a team record for most victories in a season. Number 1 player Marc Dervishian was back this year, winning 10 of his 15 matches, including eight of his last ten.

But as it turned out, the Bears would need more than Dervishian. Three good players from 1985 walked the graduation gangplank. Another passed up the year to hit the books. Yet another missed all of 1986 with a shoulder injury. The result: a disappointing 4-10 record.
Senior captain Donna O'Brien had waged a four-year battle against her body. She wanted to play tennis. Her body didn’t.

A series of leg ailments sidelined her for all but 23 matches in her first three years. As a sophomore, she got around campus on crutches but hid them from the team trainer. When it was time to play, she’d stow the crutches in her locker, pick up her racket and hobble to the court.

For a while, it looked as if Donna O'Brien’s final year would be her first healthy one. But after just four matches, her leg gave way and her career was over. She was the season for Ursinus, although the Bears played out the string and finished 1-9.

Freshman Joy Stefanowicz provided one bright spot by winning three of her seven singles matches and combining with Cindy Robbins to win four of their five doubles matches.

Men's Track

Rick Hess was a basketball player who had to be coaxed into coming out for track. The team needed long jumpers and triple jumpers, and Hess looked like he could be good even though he had never jumped in his life. On May 2, Hess stunned the favorites by winning the gold medal in the triple jump at the Middle Atlantic Conference championships. It was the only gold for the Bears.

Senior Captain Abe Rowson took silver medals in the 200 and 400 meters for the second straight year. He also anchored the Bears to 4th place in the 1600 relay, taking the baton from Rich Dunlap, Dale Lent and Dean Lent.

Dean took 4th place in the 800 for the second straight year, holding his own in a talent-laden field. Sophomore Rick Lowe, who competed in five events in most dual meets, came away with a bronze in the high jump.

Freshman John Wood dominated the weight events during the 1986 regular season despite a surgical knee and a blown-out elbow. The knee problem knocked him out of the MAC's, but not before he teamed with Rowson, Hess, Rowe, the Lents, and the rest to give Ursinus a 7-2 record. It was the 9th straight winning record for the Bears — the 5th under Coach Dick Whatley — and their 24th winning mark in 25 years.

When sophomore Laura Rideout came away with a surprise bronze medal in the discus at the MAC championships, it signaled the start of a long road back for the Ursinus women's track program.

In the first MAC championship for women, held in 1982, it wasn't a matter of which coach recruited the best team. With no prior recruiting having been done, it came down to which school happened to have the best female athletes on hand. Ursinus walked off with the first MAC women's track title.

But by the time coach Bob Shoudt came on board in August 1985, the other MAC school had caught and passed Ursinus. In 1985 the Bears didn't even have a team to enter. Shoudt started to reassemble the pieces this year, and the Bears went 3-1 against a skeleton schedule.

Ursinus qualified only two athletes for the 1986 championships but Laura Rideout's medal gave them enough points to tie for 13th in a field of 17 teams. It's a long way from the top, but it feels good to be up from rock bottom.

Congratulations to the Class of 1986 and welcome to the Alumni Association of Ursinus College.
Board of Directors
1986
Through annual dues and gifts to the loyalty fund, friends of the Ursinus Library make possible the development of special collections, exhibits, and occasional lectures. Individuals, as friends, interpret the Ursinus Library to their community and encourage gifts from others. Benefits to friends include free use of the library, a newsletter, and invitations to special events. Providing for the objective needs of the Ursinus Library is an important objective of the friends. In 1978, a permanent endowment called the Friends of the Library Fund was created in conjunction with the Alumni Loyalty Fund. Class of 1986 we invite you to join us.
SAVIN COPIERS: The Dependable Decision

For more than 25 years, Savin copiers have combined state-of-the-art technology with high performance and reliability to satisfy our customers. Whatever your particular needs:

- Small runs or large runs
- Reduction and enlargement
- Book copying capability
- Color capability
- Optional expandability...

Savin has the right copier for you! And, Savin is the only copier company that offers a choice in advanced toner technology. Isn’t it about time you looked into owning a Savin?

The Savin 7050 is what all copiers should be. Fast, versatile, easy to use and, extremely reliable. At 45 copies per minute, the 7050 enables you to complete your copying job quickly and efficiently. The Book Copy mode lets you copy both pages of a book without repositioning it. This application is perfect for the preparation of church bulletins or school newsletters. The ability to copy on a wide range of paper—even transparencies and gummed labels, puts the 7050 in a class by itself. The easy-to-use control panel puts Savin’s high technology at your fingertips—in plain everyday English. The Savin 7050. Designed, to think for itself so you can tend to other matters.

Get it “write” the first time with Savin’s Electronic Easel. The Electronic Easel is a multi-frame, dry marker board which gives the user the ability to produce up to 99 fast, crisp copies of anything drawn or written on the board by simply pressing a button. This is an excellent tool for your parish or school. Attendees of a presentation, class or meeting no longer have to be concerned with tedious notetaking so the speaker has their undivided attention. A great substitute for light glaring overhead projectors! Get the message across—the easy way, with Savin’s Electronic Easel.
