The Road to Pfailure.....so many of us recognize this trek all too well. This walk is sometimes an elated one, sometimes a dejected one, but always, when is all is said and done, one that pays off in the end. This building is representative of so much that Ursinus is. It stands for all the excellence that Ursinus extracts from its students and is a memoir of all the blood, sweat, and tears that it took to stand up to those rigors. With some help, Pfahler is becoming the model of Ursinus in the 21st century.
If nothing else, an Ursinus education does teach it’s students to speak up. When we leave here the consciousness that we develop will go with us in all our endeavors.

Wismer Center provides a nucleus for the student body at Ursinus, with recent renovations, it has become a more inviting environment and more modern.

We have collectively one of the best Faculty/Administration bodies in the country, with numbers of both boasting degrees from Ivy League universities like U Penn, Harvard, and our president, from Princeton.

Pfahler Hall renovations are yet another manifestation, not only of Ursinus’ dedication to progress and a modern education, but of the support that Ursinus alumni extend to the school long after they are gone from the dorms.
Below: Olin Hall is our newest building, and is reflective of the modern spirit of our school.

Right: The Ursinus student body is drawn from the very best of the best across the country and throughout the world.

Above: Wismer food... always a source of controversy on our campus? Is it good, or is it not? The verdict: Ursinus fare is actually some of the very best college dining in the nation.

Left: The small college community here fosters a great deal of friendships, and fortunately they tend to be the kind that last a lifetime.

Top: Wismer food, however, is generally a safe bet, at least when Don is cooking.

Above: Every now and again we get a special treat, this one brought to us by RHA in an introductory activity.

Left: But sometimes, when we just can't take it any longer, we break down . . .
Day after day, night after night, we toil... sometimes to no avail and sometimes... we're genius!
Left: When roommate problems arise, people can be found in the oddest places doing work ... but sometimes it's just a need for peace and quiet.

Below, right: And we all know what it's like to try to find space here ...

Below, right: Reimert is one of the most obvious settings for social interaction. The suites seem to foster a community spirit.

Above: People bond . . . relationships are formed, friendships strengthened . . . these dorm walls see a lot

If you want to know the value of one year, ask the student who has just failed his final exam.

If you want to know the value of one month, ask the mother who has just given birth to a premature baby.

If you want to know the value of one week, ask the editor of a weekly newspaper.

If you want to know the value of one day, ask the daily wage laborer who has ten kids to feed.

If you want to know the value of one hour, ask the lovers who are waiting to meet.

If you want to know the value of one minute, ask the person who has just missed the train, bus, or plane.

If you want to know the value of one second, ask the person who has just survived an accident.

If you want to know the value of one millisecond, ask the person who just won the silver medal at the Olympics.

Time stands still for no one. Treasure each moment.
Lions and Tigers and Bears...oh my! They've invaded Kristen Griffin and the girls of Paisley Basement!

Beardwood 1 plus Stauffer 1 plus RA Brian Ebersole equals trouble!
Beardwood, Paisley, and Stauffer Halls

Anne Alleger and the residents of Paisley 2 look quiet cozy squished in the hallway!

Paisley and Stauffer 1 just hanging out in Zack's with RA Melissa Forbes
Malikah Jenkins and Stauffer 2 share nothing but love with each other.

Only Dave Myers and Beardwood 2 could get away with this!
Danielle Lann’s residents of Paisley 3 are nice and quiet...for now!

Remember When... Years past in BPS and BWC
Teresa Green does her best to take care of her residents in Brodbeck basement and 1.

Laura Owens and the crew from Brodbeck and Wilkinson 3 are a tight bunch.
Brodbeck, Wilkinson, and Curtis Halls

Barry Keppard is all smiles as the RA in Curtis 1.

Wilkinson 2 gets two times the care with Tricia Winward and Kevin McGovern

Matt Bauder and Curtis 3 ventured down to the lounge for this picture.
Sometimes, we catch up with a friend on the phone, lounge around and laugh, or.... put lampshades on our heads??
We also resort to taking our aggressions out on others, checking e-mail, having a cake fight, or just hangin' with the guys.
There is always something interesting going on, whether it be construction on Pfahler, "Uncle Joe Wismer" Dan Edwards cooking up something for dinner, random Reimert events, parties in Wismer Lower Lounge, free tours of Helfferich by Jamie Sharp, or band practice in Bomberger.
Right: And Leslie Funair’s guys on Reimert 2, too. Happy family here?

Right: Demas has it pretty good, but the residents in 305 hafta live with Stacey... The third floor is a pretty motley crew.

Showing Some Ursinus Spirit

Whether it be on the field, attending campus events, or working behind the scenes, the Ursinus community always works together.
It's so much friendlier with two - Pooh.

When your friends are there, then everything's all right. - Elton John.

Winter, spring, summer or fall, all you've gotta do is call and I'll be there...you've got a friend. - James Taylor

The only way to have a friend is to be one. -- Ralph Waldo Emerson.

A true friend is someone who is there for you when he'd rather be anywhere else. -- Len Wein

Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow
Don't walk behind me, I may not lead
Walk beside me and be my friend
- Albert Camus
It takes a long time to grow an old friend. -- John Leonard

"Every person is a new door to a different world." - from movie "Six Degrees of Separation"

"I get by with a little help from my friends." - John Lennon

"The better part of one's life consists of his friendships." - Abraham Lincoln

"It's the friends you can call up at 4am that matter." - Marlene Dietrich

"One loyal friend is worth ten thousand relatives." - Euripides, Greek playwright

"Some friendships do not last, but some friends are more loyal than brothers." - Proverbs 18:24
Below: Laura Thomas does her best to stay interested in the conversation around her.

Right: Mmmmm...the RHA banana split night was a big success in Wismer.

Graduation is a time for leaving behind papers and exams, RAs and assigned meal times. It's a time for new freedoms, responsibilities and opportunities. It's a chance for putting four years' knowledge to use, exploring dreams and celebrating potential. At the same time, though, graduation is a time for remembering everything we have accomplished and experienced at Ursinus. On a bittersweet note, therefore The Ruby asked seniors to take a look at what four years of Ursinus College life has meant for them...

For most people, the decision to attend UC over any other institution was based, above all, on its academic reputation. Through eight semesters of taking grueling exams, attending 9 a.m. lectures (yes, Mom and Dad, we actually went to them - most of the time), and drinking gallons of Maxwell House during paperwriting allnights, we have accumulated an endless number of facts, dates, theories, and equations. We even remember some of them. But, as these seniors testify, the real impact of the academic program at Ursinus had just as much to do with how they learned as with what they were learning...

While some echoed these feelings about a particular faculty member, other seniors said their most valuable academic experience was found in a more independent program...

While academics are a central part of college life, for many seniors, the most vivid memories of Ursinus were formed outside the classroom - on sports teams, extracurricular clubs, and Greek organizations. "It's hard to put into words what my sports teams have meant to me here during my time at Ursinus. Playing sports has taught me how to budget my time appropriately, how to get along with others, and has brought me many honors and distinctions," said Megan Larkin.

Probably, the most important memories we will take with us after leaving Ursinus will be from more than classes, athletics and club meetings. They'll also be the Sunday brunches spent catching up on Saturday night gossip, the Wednesday nights hanging out and watching “South Park,” or the all-night study groups in Olin and Pfahler. For many seniors, the most important impact of life at Ursinus has been the opportunity to develop life-long friendships and to experience a true community. Phil Caiazzo notes, “The death of Ryan Auch was a very hard thing to go through, but the outpouring of support from the college community was wonderful. I felt a connection to Ursinus through this tragedy.”

1997-98 Sisters
Virginia Albright came to Ursinus in 1907 and along with two friends organized the first sorority on campus. The colors blue and gold were chosen to represent supremacy. The white rose is the sorority’s flower. The Greek motto stood for Truth, Friendship, and Sisterhood. From 1913 to 1929 Phi Psi disbanded. In 1929 Phi Alpha Lambda was organized. The word PALS was derived from the name of the sorority and it stands for Personality, Ambition, Loyalty, and Scholarship. In 1950 Phi Alpha Lambda combined with Phi Psi to form Phi Alpha Psi. The ideals of the sorority were the same; since that time the sisters of Phi Alpha Psi have continued to keep the original goals set back in 1907.

Sisterhood and Brotherhood
Greeks are more than just organized drinking...being Greek is about maintaining friendships, serving your family, and others.

Greek Dedication

When members of the Ursinus make their decision to go Greek, hopefully they do it for the right reasons—devotion, loyalty, and love...because these are the people that they will be bound to, be they spread near or far, for the rest of their lives. They are bound to people that are generations away from themselves, and will be bound to people that do not even exist yet. When you become Greek you acquire a whole new history and a whole new family.

Going Greek starts out with rushing...It’s always a lot of fun and gets rushes excited about what’s to come.

However, all of what’s to come isn’t always what was introduced at the Shipoom...
But the pledging is always worth it in the end. It serves a purpose...to teach pledges to think of their brothers and sisters first, to teach them unity and trust. Afterwards, the cohesive unit that emerges is one that not many people are want to break.
ΣΠΑ brothers Jason Moyer, Russ Whelan, and Ken Keene hang out... line dancing? Don't think so.

Who came out on top? KΑ sisters Stephanie Nestore, Melanie Hoover, Karen Amichetti, and Tracey Stanley support each other... and all come out on top!

1997 marked another successful year for the Bears. In Patriot League action, the Bears were once again brilliant. The team was led by senior Kelly Foster, who was named Patriot League Player of the Year, and senior defensive back, Dana Curry, who was also named to the All-Patriot League team. With a loss in the first round of the Patriot League playoffs, the Bears look to their young and talented underclassmen to regain control of the league next fall.

3-2 Conference
The 1997 Bears sought to defend their 1996 Centennial Conference Championship. While they were unable to secure the championship this year, they showed great determination throughout the season. Highlights for the season included a destruction of Gettysburg on Homecoming. Another highlight was the naming of seven Bears to the All-Centennial Conference Team. Seniors Eric Lieberman, Phil Mandato, Bill Mower, Mark McGonagle and Rick Colvin were all honored. McGonagle, a place kicker, was also honored as an All-American. With a talented group of underclassmen, look for the Bears to challenge for the Conference Championship in 1998.

Led by record-breaking place kicker and punter Mark McGonagle (3), the Bears take the field.

Cross Country

Cross country was a force to be reckoned with this season. Greatly improved from last year, the men’s team finished with a strong showing at the Centennial Conference Championships. The women’s team also improved considerably. The men were led by sophomore Spencer Shelly, and juniors Dan Tavares and Barry Keppard. For the women, junior Erica Heil led the way and was helped by senior Andrea Gaitan. Look for the men and women to rise to an even greater level of success in the Centennial Conference next season.

Wrestling

The defending Centennial Conference Champion UC wrestling team was not able to continue their reign, but their season was highlighted with powerful wins and promising young talent. Junior captain Donny Asper became both Conference and Regional champ at 158 lb. and earned a bid to Nationals. Senior captain Bucky Johnson earned a bid as well, placing 2nd at Regionals. Freshman John Moyer captured the Conference title at 134 lb. and was named the Outstanding Wrestler in the tournament. Other strong competitors included junior captain Nate McElhaney, sophomore Tom Flud, freshmen Mark Rodkey, freshman John DeGour, freshman Brad Tobias, and freshman John Moyer, a Conference champion at 134 lb.

Coach Racich, one of the top in his field, gets a chance to talk to a wrestler between periods.

Captain Nate McElhaney begins his match with a friendly handshake, and then the politeness ends.

The team is always supportive of their teammates on the mats.
