June 11, 1909.

My dear Mr. Ozmun:

It is very kind of you to remember my liking for Turkish cigarettes, and no doubt I shall enjoy this sample which you send when they arrive. You should not, however, have taken this trouble, since I am regularly supplied by the Regie people.

I congratulate you upon being at Constantinople during these epoch-making days, and remain, with many good wishes,

Yours very faithfully,

Edward H. Ozmun, Esquire,
American Consul General, Constantinople.
